

MAYOR ISSUES NAVY DAY PROCLAMATION

Rhineland Republicans Lose Ground

MAYOR DONOVAN IN PROCLAMATION URGES GENERAL OBSERVANCE OF NAVY DAY HERE

Acting upon the designation of Oct. 27 as Navy day, Mayor John J. Donovan today in an official proclamation asks for the general observance of the day in Lowell and calls for suitable patriotic services in all public and private schools and a widespread showing of the Stars and Stripes.

The proclamation follows: President Calvin Coolidge, the United States Navy department and the United States Navy League have designated Oct. 27, 1923, as Navy day and request the country at large to assist in making the celebration a successful one.

While the city of Lowell is not a seaport community, many of her sons have gone forth to the sea, and the skill and courage of her sailors have never been questioned. As Americans of the commonwealth which struck the first blow for freedom and independence, the American navy should hold a high place in our affections and loyalty. In every far corner of the earth the words "American Navy" have a great significance, a significance which means efficiency, alertness, strength and expert seamanship.

It is most fitting, too, that on this day we observe "Navy day," for it was just 55 years ago that Theodore Roosevelt, one of America's greatest Americans, was born. This former president was a staunch supporter of our navy and what it stands for in times of peace and war.

Therefore, as mayor of the city of Lowell, a city which has sent her quota down to the sea, I ask her citizens to observe Saturday, Oct. 27, 1923, as "Navy day," and to fly the Stars and Stripes from their homes and buildings. I direct that the American flag be raised over every school house and public building in Lowell and I urge that suitable patriotic services be held in the schools, both public and private, on Thursday, commemorative of the American navy and its achievements in times of peace and war.

JOHN J. DONOVAN, Mayor. The Lowell Navy club is at the head of the local observance and will foster a parade of navy men and veterans in the afternoon and a public mass meeting at the Auditorium in the evening. Also in the afternoon picked crews will participate in whale boat races on the Merrimack river basin just above Pawtucket falls.

SUPERIOR COURT JURY FINDS FOR PLAINTIFF IN CASE OF GRAY VS. CURRIER

A verdict for $2843.59, the full amount sued for, with interest, was returned by a jury in superior court this morning before Judge Qua. In the case of James S. Gray of Pepperell vs. Marie G. Currier, Jr. of Boston. The jury found for Gray in the cross action of Currier vs. Gray to recover payment for sinking a well 377 feet deep, at the rate of $7 per foot, at "Marlboro," the summer estate of Mrs. Currier at Pepperell, N. H. Mrs. Currier in her cross action contended that because Gray unnecessarily delayed the work it was found necessary to install a temporary water supply, which put her to great expense.

Attorney Qua, of Qua, Howard & Rogers, appeared for Gray and Attorney William N. O'Neil of Boston for Mrs. Currier.

When the jury returned its verdict Judge Qua noted an error in the figures, and after asking the jury if it was their intention to find for the plaintiff, Gray, for the full amount with interest, and receiving an affirmative reply, the court informed the jury that probably because of an error in compiling the interest, the jury's figures were in excess of the actual amount by about $100. The jury agreed to a correction, and the corrected verdict was recorded.

Intricate Points of Law
Some intricate points of law are involved in the next two cases which went to trial, both being actions of tort growing out of an automobile accident. In one case Fannie R. Simpson seeks to recover against Charles T. Douglas and Bartholomew T. Hayes, doing business as Douglas & Hayes, as a result of injuries sustained when a sedan in which she was riding, and a truck owned by the defendants, collided on the Lawrence-Lowell boulevard.

The accident happened on the afternoon of Dec. 10, 1921, and in the car with Mrs. Simpson were her husband, and her son, Roger Simpson, who was driving. As the Simpson machine attempted to pass the truck, it is claimed the driver of the truck turned the truck so that it crashed into the rear wheel of the sedan.

The second suit was brought by John A. Simpson vs. same, in which Mr. Simpson seeks damages for loss of his wife's services. The ad damnum in each case is $5000 and $2000 respectively.

In their declarations the plaintiffs contend that the defendants unlawfully permitted the truck to be operated by a person who had no legal right to do so, in violation of chapter 90 or the general laws, and by a person who was incompetent and unfit. The plaintiffs further contend that the defendants unlawfully permitted the truck to be driven without the truck being equipped with registration plates as required by law, and while so driven that it was a nuisance on the public highway.

Attorney Howard, of Qua, Howard & Rogers, is counsel for the plaintiffs and Kerwin and Reilly for the defence.

Berlin Report Declares Separatists Ejected From Coblenz—Nine Persons Killed There

WIRELESS STATIONS ALONG COAST MAKE FRANTIC EFFORTS TO LOCATE MISSING BRITISH SHIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Wireless stations in New York and vicinity joined today with stations along the coast to the south in making frantic efforts to learn the location and fate of the British steamship Westmoreland, which sent out S.O.S. signals last night. The ship was thought to be off the Delaware coast but her fate remained a mystery through the night.

An unidentified three-masted schooner, which sent out distress signals from 30 miles off Fire Island last night was reported early today to have anchored off Mariches, La. where she was being pounded by rough seas and torn by a shrieking gale.

More Than a Score Injured
Efforts to give aid last night failed, and the revenue cutter Scamander waited for daylight to put out in an attempt to reach the three-sticker.

The 56-mile northerner that raged yesterday and last night along the coast from Newfoundland to Cape Hatteras did not spare this section, the wind and rain sweeping mercilessly through New York and surrounding

SCHOONER McDONALD ON FIRE AT SEA—CREW OF SIX RESCUED

HIGHLANDS, N. J., Oct. 24.—(By the Associated Press) The British tank steamer San Manuel from Cardiff, Wales, for New York, reported by wireless today that the schooner William S. McDonald was on fire 16 miles east of Ambrose lightship and that she had rescued the crew. The McDonald is listed by Lloyd's as a wooden three-master of 252 tons, under British registry, built in 1920. Her home port is La Have, N. S. She sailed from Havana, Aug. 10, for St. Pierre, Miquelon, and was last reported sailing from Mosher's Head, on Oct. 11. Later advices said the McDonald had anchored and was a menace to navigation. Her crew numbered six.

REPUBLICANS LOSING GROUND

Reported to Have Been Driven Out of Coblenz, Dueseldorf and Crefeld

Movement Has Spent Its First Force, But Situation is Still Confused

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Reports received in Berlin indicate the Rhineland republicans are losing ground, says a dispatch to the Central News this afternoon. They have been ejected from Coblenz, the message states, nine persons being killed there. The republicans also have been driven from Dueseldorf and Crefeld, the dispatch adds.

Situation Confused
DUESSELDORF, Oct. 24 (by the Associated Press).—The Rhineland republican movement has spent its first force, according to message reports received over the crippled wire systems, but the situation is still confused.

The republicans took a few additional villages and towns yesterday and last night, but cleared out of Coblenz, the irregular "capital" and Mayence. Reaction is apparent in a number of the towns they still hold.

The separatists had counted on Coblenz and Mayence as easy prey, and observers of the movement take their failure in those cities as indicative of the ultimate fate of the young republic.

The separatists still held the Duisburg public buildings this morning but a reactionary movement was expected there and at Mulheim today. The municipal officers of both cities have so far stubbornly refused allegiance to the new movement.

LOWELL IS STILL BELOW NORMAL RAINFALL

Although nearly 2 1/2 inches of rain had fallen between 8 o'clock yesterday morning and noon today, which raised the month's total precipitation to 40.2 inches, Locks and Canals engineers still figure the city is slightly less than six inches below the normal rainfall for this season of the year. This figure is obtained from the mean precipitation covering a long period of time.

The actual amount of rainfall between 8 o'clock yesterday morning and noon today, a stretch of 23 hours, was 2.15 inches, or nearly twice as much as had fallen during the first 22 days of the month. In fact, there was rain only on three days prior to Tuesday, on the 15th, when the precipitation was 0.503, on the 19th, when it was 0.613 and on the 20th, when it was 0.167.

Reports received at the Locks and Canals from Manchester, N. H., today told of a rainfall of 1.52 inches from 8 a. m. on Tuesday to 8 o'clock this morning, which shows that the storm is not local and extends up the river valley for a considerable distance. This fact will mean a bigger river in Lowell within a very few hours.

portation company of Boston became disabled on the Reading line in Tewksbury at 5 o'clock last night and the driver put it on the street railway company's tracks while he went to get assistance.

Supt. Sayors was notified of this and the company and the wrecking crew went out there and worked until 3 o'clock this morning before they got the truck sufficiently off the track to allow cars to pass. Passenger traffic was not materially interrupted as a shuttle car was operated from the square to where the track was blocked and transferred passengers there for points beyond.

Street Railway Hard Hit

The street railway company was especially hard hit by the storm. Shortly after 7 o'clock a lakeview car was derailed by sand that had been washed over the tracks by the rain and was off the track until 11 o'clock being up all traffic bound for Mount Rain Road and points beyond.

A trolley wire broke on Mammoth road at 7:30 o'clock and was not repaired until 8:30. Passengers on the Pawtucketville cars transferred from one car to another beyond the break until it was repaired.

The meeting of the Lowell Girls' Athletic association, and all those interested in the organization which was called for at city hall at 7:30 last evening, was postponed until next Tuesday at the same time because of last evening's inclement weather. Modern Science Can Now Help You Develop Strength, Energy and Vigor

There are lots of people who never really feel their best at this time of the year. Sleep does not refresh them and they get up for work feeling dull, drowsy and tired—easily upset by indigestion—often constipated—frequently fatigued, nervous and worn out before the day's work is done.

Let modern medical science help you. Take a good tonic, as your doctor would advise! Nourish your system, build yourself up and increase your strength, energy and vigor. Try just a spoonful of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Purifying Tonic. Notice the quick difference in the way you eat, sleep, look and feel.

This vegetable tonic is scientifically designed to help you increase appetite, improve digestion, gently correct constipation, tone the torpid liver, nourish the system and send purer, healthier blood coursing through your veins. If you are not completely satisfied, druggists are authorized to refund the small cost.

active be sure that your feet receive the needed amount of exercise to insure proper blood supply. Properly fitted shoes are needed if your mind is to function normally on the affairs of business or pleasure.

Early attention to strengthening exercises for your feet is advised. The arches found in shoes will not correct flat foot, they merely act as crutches. Try the following exercises for the correction of the muscles in the forepart of the leg that support the arch of the foot:

Stand with feet parallel and somewhat apart with the great toes firmly placed, gripping the ground. With one bending the knees or moving the feet rotate the thighs outward repeatedly. Rise on the toes, keeping the body stiff, 10 or 15 times every morning and night, to strengthen the arch.

A large part of foot trouble comes from badly neglecting the foot bath. Through lack of daily care in bathing the feet and providing clean, dry stockings every day your feet are often exposed to perspiration and unclean conditions. The skin between the toes becomes "sick" and tender, causing many later foot troubles, such as peeling, cracking and offensive odors.

A careless position in standing at your work by which you favor one foot or the muscles of your legs, often causes a peculiar habit in walking by which the feet become flexed, causing soreness and swelling. This condition if not remedied may make it almost impossible for you to stand properly or continue at your work regularly. Give your feet plenty of rest. If you are in-

JOHN C. TONKIN HONORED BY HIS ASSOCIATES

Having accepted a responsible position with a reliable Boston concern, John C. Tonkin, for the past two and one-half years a foreman of Dept. 19 of the Saco-Lowell shops, was agreeably surprised and honored by his associates in Marie's restaurant last night, about 45 of his fellow-employees gathering at the banquet table and presenting the popular guest of honor a traveling bag and a handsome set of military brushes in token of their appreciation for his loyalty as a "boss" and his many characteristics as "one of the boys."

Mr. Tonkin saves his connection with the local shop just Saturday after almost three years of prosperous activity as an executive of Department 19. Although a new-comer, comparatively, to the position of foreman, he immediately made friends with every man in the department, and his leaving is regarded as a personal loss by everyone connected with him in the

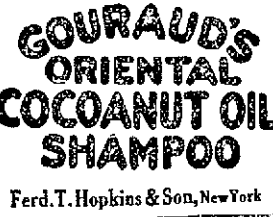

LOWELL MAN FOUND GUILTY IN LIQUOR CASE

CONCORD, N. H., Oct. 24.—In the United States district court yesterday, Judge George F. Morris imposed fines of $300 and costs for violation of the liquor laws on Leo Desrosiers, Peter Jozek and Mike Gasyk, all of Nashua. Darle Conti of Haverhill, Mass., similarly charged, was sent to jail for 30 days.

James Mamos of Lowell, charged with the illegal transportation of 50 gallons of alcohol from Lowell, Mass., to Dover, N. H., was found guilty yesterday afternoon. Sentence was deferred.

big shop. It is seldom that a "boss," whose very position calls for exacting duties, is able to gain the co-operation and general feeling of good-will that have characterized Mr. Tonkin's career in the department he is about to leave.

Taken totally by surprise, the foreman was unable to respond to the reception accorded him when he entered the gaily decorated banquet hall last night. The tables were attractively ornamented with Halloween effects, while each member of the happy gathering was bedecked in gay attire and equipped with unique noise-devices. It was a social gathering of a pleasing nature and only proved in a more pretentious manner the latent feeling long entertained by his associates that John's Saco-Lowell affiliations were appreciated, not only by his superiors, but by his "help" as well.

After disposing of a kindly quantity of Marie's choicest delicacies, the gathering was called to order by Toastmaster Fred Crowe. The first number on the entertaining program was an orchestra selection by Dave's augmented troupe of musicians, who dispensed classical and syncopating tunes in harmony with the accompanying 45 voices of the assembly. Other contributors to the program of entertainment were Alfred Kennedy in a recitation, Mr. Crowe, in a cornet solo, Peter Kane, in a piano selection, a duet by J. Cloutier and Mr. Kane and a speech by George Bickford. Remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by Fred Stock and William Laroche.

The presentation speech was made by the toastmaster toward the close of the exercises. He reviewed the pleasant associations of the past two and a half years and said he was experiencing a genuine regret when he had good-bye, good luck and continued prosperity to "Boston's gain and Lowell's loss."

The committee in charge of the festivities consisted of Nelson Holmes, Fred Crowe, George Gagnon, Robert Johnson, Peter Dupuis and Anatol Brunelle.

How I Regained Strength to do My Work

MRS. C. M. MARUKO
33 CUMMINGS ST., ROCHESTER, N. Y.

GIRLS work in mills, offices, factories, stores and kitchens all over this land, often far beyond their strength.

Frequently such a girl is the only bread winner of the family, and she must toil on, even though her back aches, she throbs with pain, has headaches, dizzy spells, is all dragged out and utterly unfit for work.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound builds health and strength for such women, as is evidenced by the many grateful letters which are received, attesting to the value of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.

How This Young Woman Got Relief

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—"I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and a displacement. This troubled me a lot when I walked and when I was sitting down and I had to stay away from work a great deal. It made me weak and nervous too. I learned about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound from one of your booklets and read about how it had helped so many. It has done so much for me I now recommend it to others. I am able to work in the factory now and can walk back and forth to work and enjoy it. I am very glad to have you use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. C. M. MARUKO, 33 Cummings St., Rochester, N. Y.

The Experience of a Stenographer

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I had a sort of mental and physical breakdown which compelled me to stay at home from work for some time. I am a stenographer and would break down in the office and go right into hysterics. A neighbor of mine had been nervous and run-down and had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with great benefit and recommended it to me. After taking several bottles I noticed such an improvement that I was the happiest girl in the world and I now feel fine. I surely am recommending the Vegetable Compound and always will when I have the opportunity to do so."—ELLA WILLY WHEATZ, 104 Wende St., Buffalo, N. Y.

HEARINGS POSTPONED BY CITY COUNCIL

The hearing on the Edison school proposition, scheduled to be held before the city council last night, and the hearing on a petition for better police protection, especially in the Centralville district, also scheduled for last night's meeting of the council, were postponed until the next meeting of the council, November 6, and the meeting was given over mainly to routine business.

The postponement of the Edison school hearing was brought about by Councilman Sadler, who stated that according to his motion at last Thursday's meeting, the Edison school proposition was not to be brought up again until the next regular meeting, which will be held Nov. 6. Chairman Gallagher stated that if the majority of the council desired to take up the matter they might do so, but on Councilman Sadler's insistence that the hearing be held on November 6 and not before, Mr. Gallagher put the proposition over until that date.

Upon Mr. Gallagher's announcement of the postponement of the hearing, members of the school committee subcommittee on the Edison school, members of the park commission and of the board of public service who were present either left the councilman's chamber and braved the heavy rain or settled down to watch the council in action.

The postponement of the hearing on the petition for better police protection was brought about upon the request of the petitioners who were not ready last night to present their evidence.

Report of Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 8.30 with all members of the council present with the exception of Councilmen Chretien and Cameron. The first business taken up was a hearing on a petition of remonstrance against the erection of a tailor shop at 318 High street by John Stokloca. Mr. Stokloca was represented by Attorney Max Cohen, who admitted, during the hearing that the request for a permit did not have sufficient number of signatures. Dennis J. Murphy, Edward Hill and Councilman McFadden voiced the opinions of residents of the district affected. Attorney Cohen stated that his client had already signed a contract with a carpenter for $1100 and that about $500 of that had been spent in purchasing materials when he received word of the proposed revocation of the permit.

Chairman Gallagher stated that the business should be referred to the city solicitor and to the inspector of buildings and that disposition was made of the petition.

Favorable action was taken by the council on an order transferring $3,000 from the street maintenance appropriation to permanent paving, $10,000, and to macadam, $6000. An order transferring $800 from the general treasury to the auditor's appropriation was also passed. This sum was expended by the auditor in advertising real estate for sale for taxes and was collected upon the payment of the taxes. He requested the transfer so that it would not appear at the end of the year that he had exceeded his appropriation. It was also voted to transfer $1500 from the "auditing of city books" to councilor's appropriation, $1000, and general expense appropriation, $500.

An appropriation of $15,000 was granted the water department from the department's receipts for the year. This sum is necessary to carry on the work of the department during the remainder of the year and was recommended by the board of public service at its last meeting.

The remainder of the session was given over to applications for pole locations, sewer permits and wire attachments.

Chairman Gallagher announced just prior to adjournment that the presidents of the four improvement associations in the city were named by him to act with the committee of the council in investigating the proposition of a waiting room for street railway patrons in the square. The association and presidents are as follows: Centralville, Thomas Harvey; Oaklands, Arthur C. Spaulding; Pawtucketville, Cornelius F. Cronin; and Grove, John R. Kiekins.

FIRE THREATENS OLD MULLIGAN HOUSE

Fire threatened the old Mulligan house on Princeton boulevard, North Centralville, yesterday evening at about 6.15 o'clock. Prompt arrival of apparatus saved the dwelling, only a shed being destroyed. Damage is estimated at about $300.

The house is now owned by Carl Giondas. The fire looked serious at the start, but the prompt and efficient work of the firemen saved the house, to which the shed was an addition.

DROP IN ICE CREAM

Reduction in Price of Ice Cream Announced Today—No, Not in the Stores—The High School

Principal Henry Harris has announced a reduction in price of 20 per cent on the commodity of ice cream in the cafeteria run by the Lowell high school. This department of the school is not intended as a money making project, and as long as it is kept self-supporting the price may be reduced as low as possible for the pupils to obtain a healthy, appetizing meal at recess time. Milk is recognized by the authorities as one of the best things that growing boys and girls can be fed, and for this reason is sold here at a price slightly under the cost of buying, handling, and serving it. Other foods such as meat, dinners, soups and chowder also are provided at a minimum price, and only on the luxuries is there a sufficient profit made to offset these, and pay for the operating costs of the force in charge of distributing the food and keeping the room and kitchen cleaned up.

Announcements were sent around today that there would be no sessions on Friday in order that the teachers might attend the annual convention in Boston on that day.

"WAR SUICIDE FOR ALL MANKIND BROTHERS"

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 24.—"War is suicide, for all mankind are brothers," said Rev. Frank D. Adams, D.D., Elgin, Ill., before the conference of Universalist ministers here yesterday.

"Lloyd George, the world's shrewdest statesman and politician," said Dr. Adams, "asks us to choose between the League of Nations and the destruction of civilization as the only possible road to a warless world."

"The premier of Japan, though not a Christian, says that the world's future is in the hands of religious leaders, all else having failed. Woodrow Wilson declares that our civilization can endure materially, only by being redeemed spiritually."

"Count Kessler of Berlin, statesman, diplomat and army officer, declared at Williamsport last summer that great armaments never gave a nation a sense of security. Supreme Court Justice John H. Clark resigned to preach the gospel of the abolition of war. Former Cabinet Officer George W. Wickersham is working for the League of Nations."

"I am not at all proud that the regents of the University of Michigan, my home state, refused Wickersham their auditorium, claiming that the league was a political issue."

"The most tragic mistake of our generation was in permitting the League of Nations to become a partisan issue."

"Some heroic group must send back an answering cry to these prophets in the wilderness. Can that group be the Universalist church?"

"Though a small denomination, our influence limited to the United States, no nation on earth is in greater need of training in the spirit of internationalism, which means world brotherhood."

"Many fear to leave off militarism and try Christianity. During the Boston police strike every thing was a law unto himself. Each nation down to this day has been a law unto itself. An international dispute should be taken out of the hands of irresponsible individuals."

Rhineland republic is declared practically dead in Aix-la-Chapelle, where separatists are beaten by lobbyists; Coblenz is taken by republicans who try to set up capital but later are driven out, according to late advices.

Ambassador Harvey at Pilgrims dinner in London, cautions French ambassador some uneasiness when he declares that billions lent to Europe by the United States are being used to keep greater armies than have ever existed; declares America hereafter must keep away from Europe's broils.

Premier Smuts of South Africa at London gathering assails France for her Ruhr policy and warns Great Britain and United States against undue generosity in remitting war debts that may be used to militarize the continent.

Gov. Walton of Oklahoma is suspended from office by 36 to 1 vote in state senate.

Federal Judge Knox at New York under anti-trust law orders dissolution of Cement Manufacturers' Protective association, consisting of nine big cement makers in the United States.

Senate committee investigating Veterans' bureau hears of graft charges in connection with purchase of site and preparation of plans for yet unbuild tuberculosis hospital at Livermore, Cal.

Senator Copeland at Chicago says Henry Ford will be the next president, if nominated by either major party.

Eminent surgeons, meeting at Chicago, agree that the "old family doctor" bears brunt of battle against disease and death.

RESERVES ENDORSE BOY SCOUT DRIVE

The drive of the Boy Scouts for $7200, was endorsed by the National Commission on Officers' Association last night in Liberty hall, and Major Francis J. Tooley was named chairman of a committee of six to work in conjunction with the scouts' committee. Scout Executive Edward J. Mullen was present at the meeting and stated the purpose of the drive. Remarks were also made at the meeting.

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts if Your Back Aches or Bladder Troubles You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then get fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithium, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

MEETING OF COURT MERRIMACK F. OF A.

The regular meeting of Court Merrimeack 11, Foresters of America, was held in Grafton hall last evening with Past Chief Ranger Edward J. McInerney presiding. Many routine matters were disposed of.

A communication from Court Italy of Boston, requesting the Courts of Foresters in the state to co-operate with it in a big membership drive was read and action deferred until the quarterly meeting of the court.

The committee in charge of the Foresters' night reported that invitations had been sent out to all the local courts. A preliminary report will be given out at the next regular meeting. Interesting remarks upon the achievements of the organization were made by Past Chief Ranger John L. Hendricks, John J. McTollough, John J. Gilligan, and Thomas L. Kelley. A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

AT ASSOCIATE HALL

The Burnside club will hold its annual dancing party tonight at Associate hall and indications point to a big success. In past years this organization has staged excellent affairs which were always social and financial successes and there is no doubt but what tonight's function will outshine past entertainments. Check dancing will be in order with Miner-Doyle's orchestra furnishing the music for dancing. Tomorrow night "Mutt" Hallett and his famous orchestra will make its second appearance this week at this popular dancing palace. Latest dance hits will be featured.

IN THE RHINELAND

The founders of the newly-proclaimed republic (sic) in the old German Rhineland, Dr. Deckers and Dr. Guthardt, have not been very conspicuous in the public prints heretofore in the great mass movement and separatist propaganda. The coup was established in the Belgian land of occupation by men not so well known as Joseph Stuebe, Hans Doren or Joseph Stuebe, nevertheless these new figures in hectic German history appear to be leaders in earnest.

The proclamation of a Rhineland republic, so-called, eclipses in interest the two separatist movements in Saxony and Bavaria for the present. Yet the strength behind the new movement for local control of old German lands, does not appear to be powerful or have any great number of prominent adherents. They appear to be listlessly led by almost anyone anxious to find some way out of the chaos that has ruled in these turbulent lands since the termination of the World war.

Berlin is blamed for most of the German distress and misery in which the country has been plunged recently. The new Rhineland republic, therefore, may lean in more friendly attitude toward France and Belgium in her eagerness to find strength and support on the pathway of freedom from the old German yokes.

The one unredemptive feature of the situation today is, that the separatist movement adds peculiar force to the German government's plea that it hasn't a leg to stand on in making any further war reparations payments. Perhaps it is to defeat the reparations plans of France that Germany is dashing herself to pieces. The empire, torn apart by Bismarck is now rapidly falling apart—resolving itself into something like its original elements.

WHERE WILL MOSES LEAD?

Senator Moses of New Hampshire is a sort of a political conundrum. Before President Coolidge was called to the White House, he was a supporter of Hiram Johnson for president, but later he declared that he would be with Coolidge in the contest for the nomination, and now he returns from a tour of the country and talks as if he had serious doubts that Coolidge will be nominated except as the result of a hard battle. He tells of the forces supporting Lowden of Illinois, Watson of Indiana, Pinchot of Pennsylvania, Wadsworth of New York, and Hiram Johnson of California. But he has serious apprehensions over the effect of Henry Ford's nomination should that in distrust genius run on the Farmer-labor ticket. As Edison says, a good business man would be spoiled if Ford were elected; but he appears to be a willing candidate, and no matter what ticket he runs on, he will receive a large vote which will be drawn mainly from the republican party. In that statement Moses is certainly right. It would, therefore, seem that Senator Moses has changed his views in reference to the political strength of the president. It is hard to see how he could consistently support the president, who stands for the enforcement of the prohibition law, including the Volstead act, which Senator Moses says is a "blackest statute."

That statement would harmonize thoroughly with some things Hiram Johnson has said on the same subject. That is why even republicans are asking, "Where will Moses lead in the national campaign?"

Unfortunately there are some legislatures which will pass any law, however unjust, if it only bears a "moral" label and is backed up by some influential uplift or religious body.

VETERANS' BUREAU PROBE

A new senatorial investigation of the government Veterans' bureau was started Tuesday in Washington, after much delay and a vast amount of preliminary study of a situation long complained of and fast growing unbearable in many respects. There is a select committee of national senators, composed of the investigation board, numbering members from both political parties and including Senators Reed, republican of Pennsylvania, chairman; Odell, republican, Nevada; and Walsh, democrat, of Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts senator has led all the rest on this special committee in his activities leading to revealing startling conditions concerning the conduct of veterans' bureau programs in various sections of the country. He has exhibited genuine interest and sympathy in his work and is reported to have discovered many things that will, when revealed to the people of the nation, show alarming features almost unbelievable.

Major Gen. John F. O'Ryan of New York will conduct the inquiry into the Veterans' bureau and is well equipped to handle the problems at hand. If reports are correct, the senatorial inquiry should settle many doubtful questions and assist materially in improving the situation covering the prompt handling of the war veterans' relief service in a reasonable period of time.

"OWN YOUR HOME"

Indications are plenty that the "Own Your Home" campaign, nationwide and backed by Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, is striking a real responsive chord in the hearts of the public, north, south, east and west.

Thousands of citizens are forced into small and crowded apartments in every large city, but even while they do light-housekeeping in any "three-room kitchenette and bath," they are always hoping and planning for a day when they will become property owners and home-builders and forsake the apartment down the

SEEN AND HEARD

Even though one machine makes 40,000 match stents a minute, smokers seldom have any.

Blind at Walnut

While the diagnosis of the patient, who had eaten rather generously, was proceeding, the sick man said, "Doctor, do you think the trouble is in the stomach?" "Oh, yes," said the doctor, "but at all. The trouble is with your 'table of contents'."—Western Christian Advocate.

In Interest of Accuracy

"You have heard what the last witness said," persisted counsel, "and yet your evidence is to the contrary. Am I to infer that you wish to throw doubt on the veracity?" The old woman, who was weeping bitterly, replied, "I merely wish to make it clear what a liar I am if I'm speaking the truth."—Tit-Bits (London).

Golden Opportunity

Your modern youth is not at all backward. This was overheard between dances. They were seated behind a large palm. How about a little kiss, girl? "About what?" asked the girl, "that you are pretty fresh for a young man who just been introduced to me?" He rolled a cigarette. There was a long pause. "The old woman," he replied, "I never kissed a man in my life." The youth spoke up promptly. "Well, here's your chance, girl, here's your chance."

Not a Connoisseur

His collection of pictures was world-famous. Yandke, Vlasquez and Rembrandt, Rubens, Romney and Reynolds graced the walls of his house. With a million pictures he had stored his treasures. His guest was unmoved and silent until the moment of departure. Then he spoke. "How wonderful that modern-day portrait of your wife in the bathroom!" "What do you mean?" said his host. "There is no picture in the bathroom." "Surely there is," his guest replied. "The window." "The window?" "That's right," his host. "It is a picture of the hot-water pipes."

Twins Very Simple

"See that girl?" asked Brown. "Yes, I see her. What about her?" returned Jones. "That girl has been a bridesmaid at more than 200 weddings," said Brown. "Gosh, she must keep her father poor." The one time my daughter was a bridesmaid, what with flowers, trinkets and humbug, it cost me 30 plunks." "It has never cost this girl's father a cent," insisted Brown. "Spring the solution, I don't begin to get it." "It is simple enough. She works in the office of the marriage license clerk."

A Hygienic Anecdote

After eating a hearty meal at one of these scientifically-planned restaurants, MacIntyre paid the cashier and strolled down the street. A pair of scales on the sidewalk attracted his attention. He stepped on them and dropped a penny in the slot. "The dirty crooks!" he exclaimed, and dashed back to the restaurant. "Look here," he bawled at the manager, "I don't weigh 100 lbs. I'm short 27 calories." The manager gazed at him coldly. "We can do nothing for you," he observed. "You should have noted that sign." MacIntyre looked at the wall and read, "Count Your Calories Before Leaving the Restaurant."—American Legion Weekly.

Some Still, Well Say

Vacuuming always has a place of respect among the domestic arts. This caught the eye of one visitor to Naples to the exclusion of all else. For days he viewed it from his hotel window with a telescope. Proceeding then to make the acquaintance of some city officials, he asked the name of the mountain. They told him it was Vesuvius. "Well, I've started," he remarked, "I'll give you a little tip. I've been watching that hill a week now. I've had experience in such matters. They can't fool me. Somebody is running a still."

My Friend

Sometimes of heavy tasks I tire; My steps seemed slackened by a mire. Until I hear a word from you That gives me strength and courage new.

Sometimes the way is dark and drear; The road ahead is veiled in gloom. But you have seen me come to me, And all is light and steps are free.

Sometimes I'm downcast and sick at heart; Then you come to my side again And sickness loses all its pain.

Sometimes the world seems hard and cold; And troubles multiply fourfold; But when you take me by the hand I'm cheered because you understand.

I would not be afraid or weak; Or for each task a helper seek; For you have seen me to the end Of any man who has no friend.

OR DAILY HONORED

John Daley of North Chelmsford, who is now to be married, was the guest at a party given at St. John's hall, North Chelmsford, Monday evening by Court Warranted, M. O. E., of which he is a member and former officer. Chief Francis Grady was in charge of the affair and was assisted by Patrick S. Ward and Arthur J. Rousseau. The main event of the evening was the presentation to Mr. Daley of a check of $100. The presentation was made by Chief Francis Grady and Mr. Daley responded in an able manner, thanking the members of the organization for their interest in him. Following the presentation, refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening given over to general dancing and community singing.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Dartmouth men of Lowell have been indeed jubilant since Saturday when the big Green eleven trounced Vermont, making retribution for the unexpected drubbing received last year.

This is a good time to plan your auto trip for next Sunday. Snow-capped Mount Washington presents a pretty picture and scenery up through the Merrimack valley and New Hampshire's lofty hills are wonderful at this season.

The switchboard operator in the business office was impressed Saturday afternoon and evening at the great interest evinced in the international horse race. On Saturday, calls for the football scores are always numerous at this season of the year, yet the total number of football queries could not begin to compare with the number of calls asking for the results of the horse race.

Today I had occasion to telephone Boston from a public pay station booth. Desiring to have the right change I looked among the front pages of the directory and verified, by the tariff schedule (here, the toll rate). The book said twenty cents. Finding a dime and two nickels in change, I put in my call. "Twenty-five cents," said the operator. "It says twenty on your rate schedule," I informed her. "Five cents war tax," came the sweet and weary rejoinder. I should think the company would stick to its rate card.

Word came from Haverhill the other day that the rat population there has been estimated at 55,000 by Pind-Piper Pitts. The rat killer, who modestly admits effecting untold ends for the lives of 75,000 rodents in Lowell is conservative in this estimate or else Haverhill ranks better than ever we thought she did. The Haverhill board of health has "ordered a call" to the rodent exterminator and he starts work this week. Thus far in his career, he has through his efforts cut short the activities of 1,200,000 rats, he modestly admits. Of course no one has ever seen the million and more. However, no one is likely to call for a recount so the statement can go unchallenged.

Lovers of King Horse have been outspoken in their appreciation of the fine photos of the Zev-Papyrus race at Belmont last Saturday which appeared in Monday's Sun. The Sun service photographers were right on the job at the Belmont track when the international class was staged and their work speaks for them. Four fine action photos, any of them able to stand out alone in comparison against the pictures taken by other service men, scored a clean beat in what was certainly open competition. Other pictures which have appeared in this locality looked "wooden" in comparison, many horsemen were quick to say. The Sun is proud of the pictures and justly. The public could not be given any better.

It is interesting to note that not a word emanated from Shawshoen Village regarding the big conference there last Friday. William M. Wood, the capable president of the American Woolen company, called all the agents, superintendents and paymasters of the sixty and more mills together. They came, they heard, they left, and nothing has been said. The conference marked the first step to establish Shawshoen as the center of the woolen trade. Silence, deep, vast, and brooding, follows this special conference. The world would be interested in what Mr. Wood had to say. But the players of over 100,000 persons, we value his opinions and respect his wisdom. Two hundred of the best woolen men in the world were not brought to Shawshoen just for the purpose of admiring the new executive building erected there. That is a certainty. Perhaps it's none of our business, but even so, we wish it were.

Larry Cummings, veteran scribe who was turning in good copy when a lot of present-day newspapermen were in their swaddling-clothes, received quite a setback the other day and mentioned it to me in conversation Sunday.

After spending the greatest part of a day in an unsuccessful quest for some man's picture his paper wanted badly, he gave the chase up and turned to other matters he had to attend to. First he telephoned to a young woman who was to be married the next evening and asked her for details regarding the arrangements for the wedding. "Why don't you come up and see me instead of having me talk over the phone to you?" I want to give you my picture, and please be sure that you get it in," said the sweet young thing. Memories of a mis-spent morning flashed in review before the surprised scribe as he stared and, hanging up the receiver, dazedly started for the home of the prospective bride. "Wasn't that a thing in it?" asked Larry. Well, if you follow the drift.

Good Hunting

(After re-reading Kipling's Jungle Book)

Once more I have threaded the jungle through
With lithe Bagheera and fat Baloo,
And heard wolves talking, one to another,
Old Akela and lean Gray Brother,
I have trailed Shere Khan to his evil lair,
I have heard his roar on the trembling air,
I have stood in the heart of the tangled wild
With Man-Gub Mowgli, the jungle child.

"Good Hunting! Good Hunting!"—the jungle call
Still holds me bound in the olden thrall.

Oh, I have wandered the trails again
Through clinging creepers, by stream and fen,
Where gray apes clamber, or jackals slink
Down to the watering holes to drink;
For the spell of the jungle is over me,
As strong as ever it used to be
When I, a youngster, was first beguiled
By tales of Mowgli, the jungle child.

"Good Hunting! Good Hunting!"—the jungle call

hearts of Americans, because they sought inspiration and found it on life's everyday levels. To them was given a glimpse of the beauty that lies beneath the surface of the commonplace. They are the true interpreters of American life, because they have seen the deepest into the American heart.

Edgar Guest belongs to the same democratic brotherhood. In his work there is no striving for the bizarre, the fantastic, or the unreal. His songs are simple—both in theme and construction. They are songs of home, of children, of everyday joys and sorrows, and of the numberless things about which the affection and sentiment of life cling. Such poetry as that of Edgar Guest has the ring of genuineness, for it is based on a deep, abiding faith in human nature—in its essential goodness and lovableness. It is this human quality in his verse that has made Guest one of the favorite poets of America.

ATOS IN COLLISION

An automobile operated by H. V. Raymond Herndahl of 79 Viola street, owned by his brother Harry, collided with a machine owned and operated by F. W. Huntington of 69 Stevens street early last night on the Princeton boulevard. Following the collision, the Huntington machine ran wild and collided with a telegraph post. Both machines were badly damaged and Mr. Huntington was treated at a local hospital for minor injuries.

SERVICE

THE business that becomes big and remains big is the one that proves itself to be of service to the people who need and use its products.

The American Woolen Company represents that bigness in business which is of use to the people. It is big because it stimulates all business through its activities and renders possible thousands of happy homes lived in by its employees. It is big because it eliminates waste and misdirected energy through more efficient methods and machines. It is big because it produces millions of yards of woolen and worsted fabrics, known for their dependable values in every part of the civilized world.

The stability and security of our civilization rests upon the bigness in business that creates and does things and that is strong enough to carry the burden.

From a Village of Good Cooks

Corn Products Refining Co.
New York

Gentlemen:

I AM the happy mother of five children, whose health is almost perfect, due mostly I believe to a plain nourishing diet.

The village in which we live is noted for its good cooks, many of whom use Mazola.

I do all my own cooking and use Mazola, in many ways, preferring it to anything else, in any kind of salad dressing.

WE have a small garden in which we grow some fine lettuce in summer, making it possible to have many delicious salads, the dressing always being made with Mazola.

I make a large amount of mayonnaise, boiled dressing, and French dressing, all containing pure ingredients of which Mazola forms the basis; my family being very fond of mayonnaise. I make rather large amounts at a time, which keeps perfectly in a cool place.

We find it economical and delicious, and have the added satisfaction of knowing it is pure and a product of our ever delicious corn.

Very truly yours,

thing all along the route was the absence of tourists. They were few and far between. Wonderful time was made from North Woodstock, past the Flume, up through Franconia Notch to Bethlehem. Touring conditions were ideal and although the roads in places were slightly "washboarded" they were solid, nevertheless, and without dust. The steepest hill and grade were literally "revealed out" and my friend did not have to shift gears on any of these hills, going right over them on high. One thing very noticeable as we journeyed over to Fabyans was the absence of snow on Mount Washington. Many times have I looked up to catch a glimpse of the Tip Top house on the Mount but never have I seen this famous house stand out so prominently as on Monday. It even seemed larger than usual, so clear was the atmosphere. One of the prettiest sights of the entire trip was coming down through Crawford Notch and we just had to stop until one of our members alighted to take a few pictures. Arriving at North Conway at 12:48, to be exact, we had journeyed slightly over 200 miles since we embarked from Lowell early that morning. The engine had carried us over these most difficult mountain roads with perfect ease, and the four-wheel brakes had proved their worth on many occasions. Three Mile hill, the base of all White Mountain tourists, we rolled along down without once using the emergency brake. At North Conway, while filling the gas tank, my friend told us that we had averaged about 14 miles to the gallon, a remarkable showing in mountain climbing. After enjoying a most excellent dinner at North Conway we started homeward, and after making a short side trip to Mount Surprise, just outside of North Conway, we were on our way. From Mount Surprise, by the way, one gets a most excellent view of the surrounding valley in which North Conway lies. Our return trip brought us down through Rochester, Exeter, Amherst, Haverhill, and Shawsheen to Lowell, where we arrived at 6.55 p. m. all just as fresh as though we had gone but a few miles, when as a matter of fact, the total mileage for the trip was 341 miles.

CORNWALLIS DAY AT SPALDING HOUSE

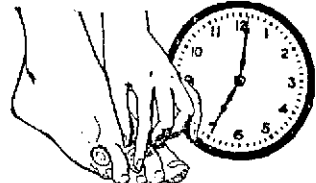

Rev. C. E. Fisher, D.D., spoke before the Molly Vatum Chapter, D.A.R., yesterday at the Spalding house as a part of their Cornwallis day program. His subject was the obligation of churches to preach the living of American ideals instead of merely repeating words. He spoke of the fact that while the country has many laws on any and all subjects, there is a growing disrespect on the part of the people for these laws. A report from the state conference was read by Mrs. Elmer Shattuck, showing the progress being made by the chapters.

The hospitality committee, Mrs. Charles B. Howe, chairman, served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

at a heavy expense with practically no passenger traffic and necessarily the company loses a great deal of money in its operation. For some time there has been talk of discontinuing the line altogether during the winter months, but it is now believed that if buses are used in place of electric cars they will be operated all year. While nothing definite has yet been done, it is believed that a change from electric cars to buses will be made by the first of next year.

ANALYSIS OF BATTING RECORDS SHOW RUTH 'BIG STAR' OF YEAR

BIG SLUGGER COMPILED ONE OF THE GREATEST RECORDS IN MAJOR LEAGUE HISTORY

Ruth Played in Entire Schedule of Yankees—At Bat 520 Official Times—Scored 151 Runs and Made 205 Safe Hits—Was Passed 171 Times—Reached First a Fraction Under Three Times for Each of the 152 Games During Season

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (By the Associated Press).—An analysis of the batting performance of Babe Ruth this season discloses that the big slugger compiled one of the most remarkable if not the greatest record in major league history, despite the fact that he failed to lead the American league hitters and was only able to tie Cy Williams of the Phillies for the home run leadership, with 41 home runs, 18 behind the world's record set in 1922.

The complete record of the Babe, however, together with the story of his versatile greatness—the work that earned him the crown of the most valuable American league player—show him as the big star of the year. And to prove the real merit of his performance, it is necessary only to compare his work with that of other batters of the diamond.

The best batting mark now recorded in the baseball books is 452, made by James L. O'Neill, while playing with the St. Louis team of the old American association, back in 1887. In compiling that high mark, O'Neill was aided by the rules of that year, which provided that a batter should be figured as having hits, also that when a batter was hit by a pitched ball, he was charged with a hit at bat and credited with a base hit. Even with these

SULLIVAN NO "SWANK"

So English Mayor Says in Complimentary Remarks Swimmer

One of the last public appearances in England of the English champion swimmer who conquered the English channel, was before the Cheshire Bath Swimming club at the Stockport Baths, Cheshire. Of his appearance, the club's official bulletin from the Cheshire Daily Echo of Oct. 23, just at hand, said:

"The swimmer in his appearance, who gave an interesting description and demonstration of his swim, Mr. Sullivan, who is at present of age 7 feet 6 inches in height and weighs 157, 71 pounds, is now the world's endurance champion, the world's breast stroke champion, the owner of the Alexander swimming trophy, and holder of the English amateur swimming title and cup which he has successfully defended since 1915.

"He was warmly welcomed by the mayor when the time came for him to make his appearance. The mayor congratulated the swimmer on the success of his swim, and pointed out a factor which added to the attractiveness of the evening was that they had their distinguished swimmer from across the water with them that night. He (the mayor) had had the joy and privilege for some time that evening of having a conversation with Mr. Sullivan, and he pointed out that whatever the great swimmer that he was, he had devoted Mr. Sullivan went back that night to his own home and he certainly hoped he would carry with him their very hearty congratulations and good wishes for a very successful future. He was a gentleman whom we in that

It is said that Huggins was over-whelmed with emotion when "his boys" presented him with a diamond ring. If his memory extended to last year, he must have broke right down and wept.

He hoped that Mr. Sullivan's efforts, and others of a similar character, would be links that would bind the countries closer together." (Hear, Hear and applause.)

Mr. Sullivan thanked the mayor and those present for their very kindly greeting, and went on to give a description of his experience in swimming the channel.

MANAGERIAL VACANCIES

Red Sox Furnish Candidates—Chance May Go to Senators or White Sox

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Boston Red Sox, full-unders this season, have furnished candidates to fill two managerial vacancies in the American league—Chicago and Washington—and one prospective vacancy in the National league at Boston.

The candidates are Frank Chance and Jimmy Burke, manager and coach, respectively, of the Red Sox this season, who have been displaced by Joe Pohl, former St. Louis slugger, under the new Boston ownership.

The post which Pohl left at St. Louis and which Jimmy Austin has been filling temporarily will be occupied by Donnie Bush, but his name also has been coupled with the Chicago berth, where Kid Gleason resigned in discouragement over his club's shaming Eddie Collins, Harry Weaver, and Ed Walsh also seem as possible successors to Gleason. And now that Burke, who formerly was at the helm for the St. Louis Browns, has been released, he, too, may be in line for either post.

Both candidates enjoy the favor of baseball followers generally, and their popularity with Boston, London, gave rise to much comment as to the advisability of the move by which they were allowed to leave that city. Boston base ball experts, however, are inclined to believe that the best results will be obtained from inferior material the best results possible.

There is a further possibility that one of the other managers in Boston, as manager of the Braves. Rumors persist that President Christy Mathewson is to make a change, whereby Manager Fred Mitchell will be released or asked to assume his former role of coach of pitchers, capitalizing the Boston popularity of Chance or Burke by engaging the one or the other.

Manager Mitchell's position, George Burns, veteran Cincinnati outfielder, also has been reported as a prospective Braves manager.

MURPHY ENDS TRAINING FOR ADAMS BOUT

Billy Murphy, the local featherweight, who is to meet Steve Adams of Chicago in a return engagement in Crescent rink tomorrow night, will finish up his training today.

Murphy has been working differently all week, under the instruction of his manager, Al MacLean, and the latter pronounces him fit for the battle of his career. MacLean is a careful handler of men. He does not believe in rushing a boxer, particularly a youthful exponent of the manly art. He could have Murphy working more and more, but he feels that the destinies of many ring notables, that a boy requires a certain amount of rest after each battle.

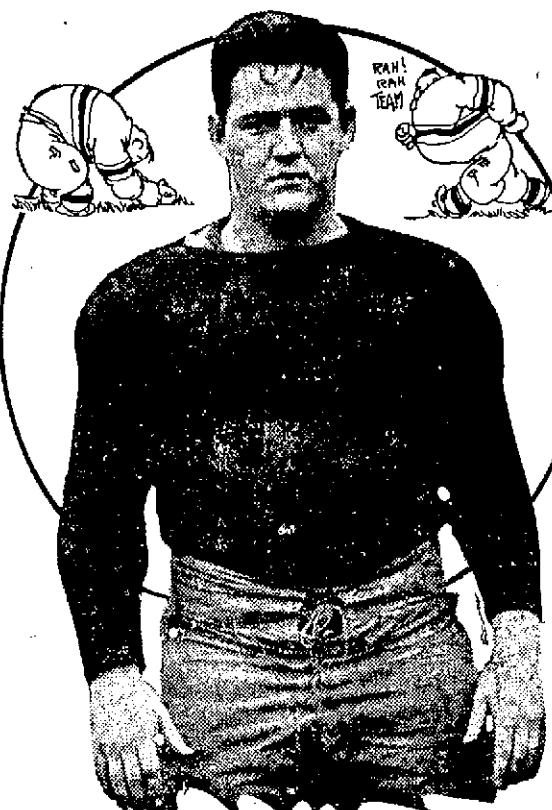

When Murphy won over Manly here a few weeks ago, he was a very young man, but he has been a careful handler of men. He does not believe in rushing a boxer, particularly a youthful exponent of the manly art. He could have Murphy working more and more, but he feels that the destinies of many ring notables, that a boy requires a certain amount of rest after each battle.

MacLean was particularly anxious to have Murphy meet Adams again. He felt that the westerner gave Billy one of the hardest battles of his career. He also saw in Adams a boy who measured up to Murphy's height and reach. He felt that any of his opponents and he feels that in meeting him again he will acquire experience that will greatly help him in his campaign to reach the top rung of the pugilistic ladder.

There is considerable interest in tomorrow night's semi-final which will see Frankie Hebert of this city and Johnny Thomas of New Bedford in action. Thomas is a brother of the ban-tam champion, Tony Thomas, and is said to be a fast and aggressive worker. Hebert is stepping lively and showed much class in a recent bout in Western, when he stopped his opponent in a few rounds.

SEEKS BASKETBALL GAMES

The American Legion basketball team of Perry, N. H., would like to hear from any fast semi-pro or pro basketball teams in this section, relative to arranging games for the coming season. They will be played either at home or abroad. Address J. R. Abbott, Mer-5 Highland ave., Derry, N. H.

MR. GIBRALTAR, JR.

The gentleman of rather generous dimensions staring at you in the above picture has several noteworthy distinctions. To begin with, Mr. James Welsh plays a guard on the Colgate varsity. In the opinion of such authorities as Coach Chick Meehan of Syracuse and Dick Harlow, former Penn State coach, Welsh is a throwback from the old days of football when beef was everything. Welsh weighs 225 pounds and is built close to the ground. With all his weight he is agile and quick, and no team has been able to gain through his side of the line so far this season.

PONY-INDIAN TEAMS IN CONTROVERSY

The fire of the Ponies' football team has been aroused by the following letter from Manager James Torper of the Indian Seconds:

"About three weeks ago my team went over to the Lakeview avenue grounds and met the Ponies, the latter winning, 6 to 3. It was agreed upon at that time, between the Ponies' management and myself, to play a return game on the old Fair grounds on Oct. 28. The Ponies' management has now cancelled the return date and flatly refuses to play either on neutral grounds, I charge the Ponies with breaking faith with me and unless the team goes through with the scheduled game, the Indians will be convinced that they can put the 'Ponies' on them."

In refutation of the above statement, the Ponies come to the fore with the following: "The Ponies, 130-pound champions of the city, regret the attitude taken by the Indian Seconds, as expressed in a recent communication. Although the Ponies admit that there has been an exchange of harsh words among the players of both teams, such arguments have nothing to do with the cancellation of Sunday's game. If the Indian Seconds wish a return game with the Ponies, who decisively defeated them a short time ago, it is up to their management to come to the Ponies and present their claims. The Ponies will be very busy with advance dates but will be glad to accommodate the Indians when the opportunity arises. There is no real bitter feeling on the part of the Ponies against the Indians. As victors, the Ponies will not go looking for a game with a team they have beaten. They believe in one of the unwritten rules of sport: Let the challenger come to the champion."

Will Play Kenwood Rovers

Next Sunday afternoon on the Lakeview avenue grounds the Ponies will cross signals with the strong Kenwood Rovers. The visiting aggregation is composed of heavy linemen and fast backfield runners. They have not some of the best outfits in Lowell to date and always came through with flying colors. As the Ponies game is their objective game of the year, the team will put forth its best efforts to lower the standard of the title-holder. The Rovers count on Kapala, Hayward, Martell, Corbett, Murphy, Catesian, Leighton, Minton and others to turn the tables in their favor, while the Ponies will use the same lineup which conquered the Butler Seconds in the championship contest last Sunday. Leavitt, Nodden, Burchell, D. Curley, Knight, Martin, Glancy, Nernay, Crabtree, McGowan, Gardner, Riley, T. McDonald and M. McDonald.

MEETING AT ST. ANNE'S PARISH HOUSE

Episcopal church members of the district embracing Lowell, Billerica, Chelmsford, Shirley, Ayer and Groton, were addressed in St. Anne's parish house here yesterday by Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe of Detroit. In the evening he addressed the men of St. John's parish.

He discussed the planning of church work for the ensuing year and preparations of budgets to cover the same. The need for more negro missions was stressed by the speaker in the course of his remarks on the general church situation.

AUTOMOBILES CLASH

A taxi owned by the Red Line Taxi company and operated by Joseph W. Levesauer of 175 Mt. Hope street, collided with a Ford sedan owned and operated by Valentine E. Willmott of 65 Parkway avenue at 5 o'clock last night in the square. Willmott's machine was turned over onto its left side and Mr. Willmott escaped with only a minor injury to his elbow. His machine, however, was quite badly damaged, the front axle being sprung, one wheel broken and a mudguard bent. It was righted by officers and spectators. The taxi was undamaged.

"KID" WAGNER TO BOX PAL MORAN

By N.E.A. Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Pal Moran, who recently eliminated the veteran Charley White from the lightweight picture, has signed to meet Eddie "Kid" Wagner in an eight rounder at Philadelphia in November. In Wagner Moran will not be meeting a setup and he will have to be in good shape to win. Wagner some weeks ago gave Johnny Dundee a decisive beating. He is not a great boxer, but a trouble maker to champions and near-champs. Moran, on the strength of his knockout win over White, is now working up to a title scrap with Benny Leonard.

GRANT, FORMER CHAMP, WINS ABROAD

By N.E.A. Service

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Another American has obtained to golf distinction in England. Douglas Grant, formerly amateur champion of California, recently won the west of England championship from a high class competitive field. Grant drew Sidney Frey a high ranking player, in the finals and trimmed him 4 and 3. Grant played splendidly throughout the tournament and his game reached heights of actual brilliancy in the 36-hole finals. On the greens the American was superb and seldom failed to hole out in the customary two putts.

So Firpo couldn't beat that heard bill in Havana? Isn't there anything the senior can beat?

CLOTHING STORE ENTERED

The clothing store of Daniel S. O'Brien, in Merrimack street, was broken into some time last night and six suits and two overcoats stolen. Admittance was gained by forcing the front door. The thief or thieves left no clues.

LOWELL PRIESTS AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Catholic clergy of Lowell will be represented at the annual conference of the priests of the Boston diocese in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, this morning. The event was purely an ecclesiastical affair at which Cardinal O'Connell addressed the clergy on church matters. This morning's gathering was attended by about 400 curates of the diocese, representing more than 225 parishes.

A similar conference was held yesterday with the pastors of the diocese in attendance.

ENJOYED CLAM SUPPER AND LECTURE

The Downtown Men's club met in the vestry of First Congregational church last night for a clam supper and illustrated lecture on the natural scenic beauties of California, given by Rev. Percy B. Thomas, pastor of the church.

The meeting was presided over by Otto W. Butler. Howard D. Smith, president of the Grace Universalist Men's club, spoke on desirability of a United Men's club here.

Y.W.C.A. FUND DRIVE

The first day of soliciting by members of the Y.W.C.A. fund drive team netted $903 for the budget fund, according to reports made at the supper served in Kilson hall last evening. The rain of the day failed to dampen the ardor of the workers who were all determined to exceed that mark in today's subscription. Mrs. S. H. Thompson, president of the supper and Rev. Arthur C. McGiffert was the principal speaker. The team headed by Mrs. Joseph Barber, was high for the day.

LOTS OF PEP AND SNAP IN "OH, OH, CINDY"

The tickets for "Oh, Oh, Cindy," the musical comedy to be presented by the Girls' City club, were put on sale at the box office of the Academy of Music this morning and judging from indications two capacity houses will greet the young players on Thursday and Friday evenings respectively. "Oh, Oh, Cindy" is just brimming over with "pep" and "snap," with comedy aplenty. A pretty little plot runs through the entire play and many beautiful songs, together with excellent specialty dancing numbers are interwoven. An evening of real enjoyment awaits all who attend either of the performances. In all star cast of over 20 young men and young women take part. Mr. Russell Rowland, director of "Oh, Oh, Cindy," has been with the John R. Rogers Producing company for about five years. He has produced many musicals, musical comedies, operettas, vaudeville and the like from Canada to the Gulf and from Maine to Oklahoma. His home is in Allentown, Pa., although New York City is his headquarters. Mr. Rowland has the highest of praise for Lowell talent and feels certain that "Oh, Oh, Cindy" is going to be the biggest musical comedy hit that Lowell has witnessed in many moons. He is much pleased with the splendid work and co-operation by the Girls' City club and he hopes that the Lowell public will support "Cindy" by attending one of the two performances, "Oh, Oh, Cindy" at the Academy of Music, Thursday and Friday evenings will mark the Rogers Producing company. He has staged shows in Lawrence, Newburyport, Mass., and Concord, N. H.

DOCKERS' STRIKE IN IRELAND NEAR END

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—The prolonged strike of the dockers and transport workers, which has caused a stagnation of trade and brought suffering to thousands of people, is coming to an end.

The Cork dockers, who for three months, agreed yesterday to resume work forthwith on the terms suggested by the government, namely a wage reduction of one shilling a day and the establishment of a commission to investigate the cost of living.

The executive committee of the Transport Workers' union, meeting in Dublin last evening, decided to order all locals to arrange for the resumption of work as soon as possible.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

MERRIMACK SQUARE

Final performances will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre of "The Cheat," starring Pola Negri on one of the most dramatic productions in which she has ever appeared. She is supported by Jack Hall and Charles de Roche, the latter a celebrated French actor. There will be a complete change of program tomorrow.

Features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "The Printer's Devil," starring Wesley Barry in a most novel and entertaining production, and Dustin Farnum in "The Man Who Won." A typical Farnum story with plenty of action and virile drama.

The old saying, "There will be boys," is proved true by Wesley Barry in "The Printer's Devil."

The story is a romance woven round the famous weekly of a small town newspaper, and tells of Jack Hubbard, a young printer's devil, and his adventures.

I became so weak and all run-down that I could not get around to do anything. I had practically no suffering and my child was very healthy. Always since that experience, whenever I feel the least bit run-down or in need of a tonic I take a bottle of Favorite Prescription and it makes me feel fine."

When his employer decides to close shop, he walks to the outskirts of the town wondering how he will get along in the future. Here he meets Sidney Fletcher, a young man who had been laid off and who had been introduced to him by a local banker. In order to stay in the town permanently, Sidney purchases the Gazette and renounces Brick in his old position.

The picture is brought to a happy conclusion by Brick who, by an ingenious scheme, brings the red robbers to justice, clears Sidney of suspicion and is instrumental in bringing together Sidney and Vivian and is himself crowned the hero of the town. "The Man Who Won," with Dustin Farnum in the lead, will prove a decided treat to all lovers of this virile actor's work. It's a story of

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" and breath—a dull, tired feeling, sick headache, torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bed-time.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 50c.—Adv.

If you want to live your youth over again, then don't miss seeing "Perrod and Sam" at the Strand today. It's the last chance. Booth Tarkington's great story of American boyhood, is truly wonderfully reinterpreted. Then there is Irving Cummings' production, "Broken Hearts of Broadway," with Colleen Moore and Johnnie Walker starring. This too, has phases of life that will have a telling and lasting effect on all. The comedy and weekly are also good.

For the last three days of the week, beginning Thursday, the big golden production, "Red Lights," an adaptation of the great mystery play, "The Red Car," considered one of the best mystery stories of the year, will be shown. AMERICAN GRAVES WELL CARED FOR IN FRANCE

PARIS, Oct. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Accusations that the graves of American soldiers buried in France are badly neglected have been found to be untrue by Paris post No. 1, American Legion, it was announced today.

H. C. Huffer, junior vice commander of the post, has called Leonard Bowles, national adjutant of the American Legion at Indianapolis, an expression of the surprise felt here by members of the organization that any such complaint should be made.

"The American graves registration bureau in Paris," Mr. Huffer cables, "is ably managed and is doing effective work."

"In less than two years, 45,000 bodies have been exhumed and sent to the United States. Thirty thousand other bodies have been exhumed and reinterred in metallic caskets, which work was only completed about six months ago."

"Since then and to June 1 last contracts have been let for permanent construction and beautifications. Up to Oct. 1, Belleau cemetery was 45 per cent completed. Permanent construction work in other cemeteries is progressing satisfactorily."

FOR GENERAL ELECTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Oct. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Great Britain may soon be preparing for another general election, if the intimations appearing in today's newspapers are reliable.

In a speech to be delivered at the Unionist party conference at Plymouth on Thursday, Prime Minister Baldwin, according to the Daily Express is expected to propose the all-around protection of British industries by a scientific tariff. It is not anticipated that he will suggest a tax on imported wheat or meat, but rather that the revenue from a tariff on imported manufactures be applied to subsidizing the dominions in the production of meat, wheat and cotton.

FORD FOR PRESIDENT

Formation of New National Political Party With Ford as Leader to Be Discussed

DETROIT, Oct. 23 (By the Associated Press).—Formation of a new national political party with Henry Ford as its standard bearer will be undertaken at a national organization conference of all Ford-Ford-President clubs, to be held here Dec. 12, 13 and 14.

The call for the organization conference was decided upon at a meeting last night of several Michigan Ford clubs. The conference, according to leaders of the movement, probably will name a date and place for holding a nominating convention next spring.

The conference call will go out within a few days. It was stated by William Kronberg, secretary of the Dearborn Ford-Ford-President club, that he would accept nomination by a party the clubs might organize. "We virtually were forced into action," Mr. Kronberg said, "many of the clubs in other states threatening to proceed with a convention call if we did not do so."

Mr. Kronberg estimated the number of Ford clubs in existence at between 200 and 300, and added that he was advised the organization conference would attract at least 3000 delegates and visitors. Sessions of the organization conference, he said, would be held in the Auditorium at Dearborn, home of Henry Ford.

PLUCKY PARROT PINCHES PESKY PLUNDERERS

MAC THE MACAW

By N.E.A. Service
WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Oct. 24.—Robbery will out!

Providing you have a macaw like Mac around the place.

Because of his unrelenting, feathered savagery, two desperate thugs were foiled in attempt to rob the Model Laundry's safe here.

The crooks had pulled several jobs in the town.

It was now more than Mac who brought them to grief.

Hearing a disturbance in the front office he shouted out:

"Hello, there!"

And the would-be spoilers fled—into the arms of the passing sheriff.

Being bold crooks and proud of themselves they tried to alibi their lack by saying they wouldn't have been caught had the "night watchman" been off his guard, as they anticipated.

When told only Mac the macaw had lodged them in jail they were shamefaced.

The bird had mechanically repeated the telephone city's crooks. During the day he roasts in his office.

But his warning saved the laundry several thousand dollars.

Hence Mac no longer will have to worry about crackers and cuttle bone so long as he lives.

TREASURY AGENTS ON GUARD IN BREWERIES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Plans are being laid by the treasury to check supplies of liquor reaching the illicit trade both at the seaboard and at the possible domestic sources. A reinforced coast guard fleet to combat smuggling and a system of close inspection of breweries and distilleries are the proposed means.

Taking up the suggestions of Governor Plachot, of Pennsylvania, here Monday as to means of "drying up" domestic liquor sources, a statement issued by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes announced that "provision already has been made in treasury decision 3523 for internal inspections" of breweries and distilleries by enforcement officials. The plan, treasury officials said, will require additional appropriations over those for the current fiscal year, however, and there was no indication of when it might be put into effect.

It was said to be aimed chiefly at what officials described as a rapidly increasing supply of high power beer. Secretary Mellon was said to favor a return to the old arrangement of putting a treasury agent on guard at all breweries.

Denishawns Score Another
Big Hit With Lowell Audience at Auditorium

Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn, creators of dances that have made the name of Denishawn world renowned, returned to Lowell last night and presented a delightful program of interpretive and visualized dance tableaux before an audience that practically filled the Memorial Auditorium.

Out of doors the evening was anything but propitious and undoubtedly this prevented a real capacity house, but the audience easily numbered 500, including scores and scores of people who saw the Denishawns last season and were eager to enjoy them again.

As had been said many times the dancers this year on tour are presenting an entirely new program, more colorful than last year's and allowing the entire troupe to attain fresh laurels of accomplishment. The program ranked from music visualizations to the mystic story of Ishitar, based upon the poem of ancient Babylon that deals with descent into the underworld, and the re-creation of man, his return to the sun, and his triumph over evil.

In each number the handwork of the Denishawns was apparent whether or not the two stars actually appeared. All of the dances were conceived and choreographed by them and what is more much of the music was from the pens of American composers, for instance, McDowell, Copland, Debussy, and others.

The theme of poetry in motion seemed to be attained in "The Spirit of the Sea" with Miss St. Denis as the Spirit, Mr. Shawn as a fisher boy and members of the troupe as his playmates. Clad in rippling waves of sea-green silk Miss St. Denis portrayed with rare skill the ever restless ocean with rare skill.

High in color was the "Father of the Town," a public pastoral with music by Charles Wakefield Cadman and based upon an Iliad legend to the effect that a feather blown into the air at dawn, if caught by a breeze, will carry the message of a prayer.

High in color was the "Father of the Town," a public pastoral with music by Charles Wakefield Cadman and based upon an Iliad legend to the effect that a feather blown into the air at dawn, if caught by a breeze, will carry the message of a prayer.

Deep mysticism flooded the presentation of "Ishitar of the Seven Gates," presented as the climax of the evening. Here Miss St. Denis displayed every bit of her charm and beauty, and the playmate of Mr. Shawn as Tammuz, revived and returned to earth. The three dances of generation performed by Miss St. Denis were high lights of the program.

In a lighter vein were the two American sketches, "Casse Americano," by Charles Wakefield Cadman and the "Pasquinade," danced by Miss Doris Humphrey.

Throughout the program effective lighting enhanced each number and splendid musical support was given by an instrumental quartet directed by Louis Horst as piano conductor. Members of the troupe were Doris Humphrey, Leonore Scheffer, Louis Brooks, Georgia Graham, Ann Douglas, Theresa Sadownska, Martha Hardy, Pauline Lawrence, Pearl Wheeler, Charles Woodman, Robert Graham, J. Roy Buschick and George Stearns.

The evening entertainment at the Auditorium will start at 8 o'clock, with Congregational John Jacob Rogers, Mayman, John J. Donovan, and Capt. William P. White, U.S.N., retired, as the speakers, followed by six reels of moving pictures showing the complete work in the navy at home and abroad. At the conclusion of the movies will be dancing for the general public until the time set by state laws. At all times throughout the evening a display from the navy district in Boston will be shown in the lobby for the examination of all interested. The ushers for the affair and the guards for the exhibit will be ex-servicemen in uniform and former sailors and marines are again reminded that the big meeting night of the club is Friday at 7:30 o'clock in the high school annex.

PROPRIETOR OF ALLEGED HOUSE OF ILL FAME AND TWO GIRLS ARRAIGNED HERE TODAY

Krikos Stephanian is Held in $500 and Girls Found in His House in $300 Each—Many Alleged Infractions of the Motor Vehicle Laws

Krikos Stephanian, proprietor of a lodging house at 155 Market Street, which has been under surveillance for several weeks, was arrested by Officer Conney and Moore, of the vice squad last night and held at the station for maintaining a house of ill fame. Two young girls giving the names of Rymone Therrien and Jennie Cole, who were on the premises at the time of the raid, were also taken in and charged with being lewd and obscene persons. They were arraigned today and continued in $300 bonds each for their appearance in court next Saturday morning. Stephanian was ordered to recognize in the sum of $500 for appearance on the same day.

As the result of a collision between an automobile and a street car in First Street early last night, William Riese of 370 Lawrence Street was arrested by Officers William J. McBride and Francis O'Loughlin for operating a motor vehicle without license or registration. Riese said he purchased the car from a friend in Boston. The car was placed in a local garage of the day of the sale and remained there until last night when he took it out to visit a friend in the Kenwood section of Dracut. At First Street, the machine skidded on the slippery pavement and crashed into a street car. It was then that the officers investigated and found the owner to be without license or registration. Riese told the court this morning that he could get both in Lawrence and was given until tomorrow to produce the same.

Another Auto-Electric Crash
Another collision with unpleasant results occurred at the Pawtucketville end of the Pawtucket bridge about 1 o'clock last evening, when a machine being operated by Henry Mayo of Hollis, N. H., crashed into an electric car operated by Thomas W. Baker. After the collision, Mayo attempted to make good his escape, but was apprehended in Riverside Street by Officer Joseph Clark. He appeared in answer to charges of drunkenness, operating without a license and operating while under the influence of liquor. It is morning. All three charges were continued until tomorrow. Dr. Joseph Kanapas, also of Hollis, and companion of Mayo at the time of the accident, was placed under arrest for drunkenness. He was later discharged.

MAYOR DONOVAN IN PROCLAMATION
URGES GENERAL OBSERVANCE OF NAVY DAY HERE

Acting upon the designation of Oct. 27 as Navy day, Mayor John J. Donovan today in an official proclamation asks for the general observance of the day in Lowell and calls for suitable patriotic services in all public and private schools and a widespread showing of the Stars and Stripes.

His proclamation follows: President Calvin Coolidge, the United States Navy department and the United States Navy league have designated Oct. 27, 1923, as Navy day and request the country at large to assist in making the celebration a successful one.

While the city of Lowell is not a seaport community, many of her sons have gone forth to the seas, and the skill and courage of her sailors have never been questioned.

As Americans of the commonwealth, which struck the first blow for freedom and independence, the American navy should hold a high place in our affections and loyalty. In every far corner of the earth the words "American Navy" have a great significance, which means efficiency, alertness, strength and expert seamanship.

It is most fitting, too, that on this day we observe "Navy day," for it was

MAKE FRANTIC EFFORTS TO LOCATE MISSING BRITISH SHIP

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Wireless stations in New York and vicinity joined today with stations along the coast to the south in making frantic efforts to learn the location and fate of the British steamship Westmoreland, which went out S.O.S. signals last night. The ship was thought to be off the Delaware coast but her fate remained a mystery through the night.

An unidentified three-masted schooner, which sent out distress signals from 30 miles off Fire Island last night was reported early today to have anchored off Moriches, L. I., where she was being rounded by rough seas and torn by a shrieking gale.

More Than a Score Injured

Efforts to give aid last night failed, and the revenue cutter Shenandoah waited for daylight to put out in an attempt to reach the three-masted ship.

The 10-mile northeaster that raged yesterday and last night along the coast from Newfoundland to Cape Hatteras did not spare this section, the wind and rain sweeping mercilessly through New York and surrounding

SCHOONER McDONALD ON FIRE AT SEA—CREW OF SIX RESCUED

HIGHLANDS, N. J., Oct. 24.—(By the Associated Press) The British tank steamer San Manuel from Cardiff, Wales, for New York, reported by wireless today that the schooner William S. McDonald was on fire 16 miles east of Ambrose lightship and that she had rescued the crew. The McDonald is listed by Lloyd's as a wooden three-master of 252 tons, under British registry, built in 1920. Her home port is La Have, N. S. She sailed from Havana, Aug. 10, for St. Pierre, Miquelon, and was last reported sailing from Mosher's Head, on Oct. 11. Later advices said the McDonald had anchored and was a menace to navigation. Her crew numbered six.

BLACKMAIL OF
WEALTHY MEN

Mrs. Reese Who Told of Her
Participation in Schemes
Cross-Examined Today

Counsel for Wm. J. Corcoran, on Trial for Larceny, Questions Woman

BOSTON, Oct. 24.—Mrs. Lillian Reese, who told in court yesterday a story of her participation in schemes to blackmail wealthy men, was cross-examined today by Joseph P. Walsh, counsel of William J. Corcoran, former district attorney of Middlesex county, and others on trial for larceny and conspiracy. The witness said she appreciated that if the jury believed her story it would tend toward the conviction of Mrs. Theresa Duggan, one of the defendants whose statement regarding the alleged blackmail operations had previously been read in court.

Under cross-examination by Fred J. Daggett, of counsel for Harry E. Levenson, co-defendant with Corcoran, Mrs. Reese was asked: "Did Levenson tell you he was in the blackmailing business?"

"I don't recall that he did," was her reply.

"Did he tell you how much he made?"

"Yes," she replied.

"Was he joking?"

"No, he was serious. I believed him."

The witness repeated that it was Levenson who told her to have Kenneth Merrill of Boston, an alleged victim of extortion, come to her Cambridge apartment. Under questioning by W. Jennings Patton, of counsel for Corcoran, Mrs. Reese said she did not remember summoning Corcoran by telephone after the alleged trapping of Max Korn of Beverly.

REPUBLICANS
LOSING GROUND

Reported to Have Been Driven Out of Coblenz, Dueseldorf and Crefeld

Movement Has Spent Its First Force, But Situation is Still Confused

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Reports received in Berlin indicate the Rhineland republicans are losing ground, says a despatch to the Central News this afternoon. They have been ejected from Coblenz, the message states, nine persons being killed there. The republicans also have been driven from Dueseldorf and Crefeld, the despatch adds.

Situation Confused

DUESSELDORF, Oct. 21 (by the Associated Press).—The Rhineland republican movement has spent its first force, according to meagre reports received over the crippled wire systems, but the situation is still confused.

The republicans took a few additional villages and towns yesterday and last night, but cleared out of Coblenz, the irregular "capital" and Mayence. Reaction is apparent in a number of the towns they still hold.

The separatists had counted on Coblenz and Mayence as easy prey, and observers of the movement take their failure in those cities as indicative of the ultimate fate of the young republic.

The separatists still held the Duisburg public buildings this morning but a reactionary movement was expected there and at Muelheim today. The municipal officers of both cities have so far stubbornly refused allegiance to the new movement.

LOWELL IS STILL BELOW
NORMAL RAINFALL

Although nearly 2½ inches of rain had fallen between 8 o'clock yesterday morning and noon today, which raised the month's total precipitation to 3.602 inches, Locks and Canals engineers still figure the city is slightly less than six inches below the normal rainfall for this season of the year. This figure is obtained from the mean precipitation covering a long period of time.

The actual amount of rainfall between 8 o'clock yesterday morning and noon today, a stretch of 25 hours, was 2.310 inches, or nearly

CHARGED WITH LARCENY FROM THE LOWELL GUILD

Frank S. Caley, alias Alfred W. Say, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Captain Pelie and Lieutenants Mayher and Ryan, and charged with the larceny of $420 from the Lowell Guild. The theft occurred during the recent day conducted by the organization in this city. Caley went to the tag day headquarters and volunteered his services in connection with the drive for funds. Interpreting his act as one of good faith, he was given one of the contribution boxes and began canvassing in the downtown sections of the city. He failed to return with the box, and the police were notified with the result that he was apprehended yesterday. In district court this morning he was continued until Oct. 31 in $300 bonds. Since his arrest, it was learned that he is wanted in New Haven, Conn. for funds.

BITTER FIGHT ON

Rep. Callahan Calls for Probe to Determine Who Paid
Expenses in Okla.

Replies to Rep. Phillips' Threat by Daring House to Let Him Give Testimony

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Oct. 24.—(By the Associated Press) The bitterest fight precipitated since the convening of the special session of the Oklahoma legislature broke on the floor of the house today when Representative J. W. Callahan, democrat of Latimer county, introduced a resolution providing for an investigation to determine who paid the expenses of house members when they attempted to convene on Oct. 20, and were dispersed by military authorities upon orders from Gov. Walton. Callahan is a Walton supporter.

The resolution was adopted after a brief but acrimonious debate and was referred to a committee investigating conduct of house members.

The resolution sought especially an inquiry to determine whether the K. K. K. or certain "interests" in Tulsa had contributed funds for the attempted session.

While the house night was in progress both Governor Walton and Lt. Gov. Governor M. E. Thompson arrived at their office, and were officially served with the senate resolution adopted late yesterday, suspending the former temporary and naming the latter acting governor during the impeachment trial of Governor Walton.

ACTIVITY AT DOORN REGARDED AS MOVE TO BRING ABOUT RETURN OF EX-KAISER TO THRONE

Princess Hermine Returns From the Reich With Important News of Activities of Nationalist Military Party and the Chances of Eventual Return of Former Emperor to Throne—Ex-Crown Prince and Other Leaders Visit Exile—Guards Doubled

DOORN, Holland, Oct. 24 (by the Associated Press).—The visit which former Crown Prince Friedrich, Wilhelm of Prussia is now making at Doorn castle is regarded as having considerable significance.

According to information from several reliable sources and from persons close to the former emperor, the presence of the prince in Doorn is connected with the return of Princess Hermine from the Reich, whence she brought very important news concerning the activities of the nationalist military party and the chances of the eventual return of William Hohenzollern to the throne.

It is stated that Hermine, herself, is displaying great activity and that all her keen intelligence is directed toward the object and hope of the coming emperor. Moreover, quite recently an officer of high rank from Doorn and a political personage from Munich have been guests of the former emperor, who since this visit has shown great nervousness.

A detail regarded as curious is the fact that a Doorn furniture dealer has been commissioned to sell a large quantity of the rich tapestries and curtains belonging to the ex-empire, and also a large part of his wardrobe.

The Dutch government and authorities are closely watching the movements of the ex-emperor and his son and the police force guarding them has been doubled.

The action of the federation follows a similar movement started last Sunday by a number of churches in the northeastern section to drive lawbreakers from their neighborhood.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Suspension of Adrian C. Chamberlain, prohibition director of New Jersey, pending a thorough investigation of the administration of his office, has been recommended to President Coolidge by former Senator J. S. TRIED TO END LIFE IN CELL

Wm. Ford Attempted Suicide Few Hours Before His Arraignment in Court

Charged With Murder and Arson Following Brooklyn Fire in Which Six Perished

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A few hours before he was to have been arraigned in court on charges of murder and arson, growing out of the death of six persons in a Brooklyn fire last week, William Ford, real estate man, attempted to kill himself in his jail cell today by slashing his arms with a safety razor blade.

Prison attendants called a physician, who said he would recover.

"I'll try it again the first chance I get," Ford said, "and do the job right."

Ford, according to the confession of an alleged accomplice, set fire to a Brooklyn flat in which his father-in-law, George Klein, a playwright, had his home, to avenge himself on the older man, with whom he had quarreled over a business deal. Klein, two other men and three women were burned to death.

Caught in the gale that whipped along Long Island sound was the 45-foot Ketch-Harpoon, owned by William Washburn, Sag Harbor, who was to have returned across the Atlantic next spring a boat of special size belonging to the Duke of Teintner. The Harpoon was cast upon the rocks off Port Totten, L. I. If the tiny vessel is beyond repair, Mr. Nutting will build another at once for the race, he said, last night.

Damage at Coney Island

At Coney Island, huge waves dashed against the new beach and boardwalk through the night, damaging buildings closed for the season.

A score of persons were injured in Greater New York in automobile and surface car accidents, caused by the storm, and considerable damage was done to bulkheads and docks along the city's waterfront. At City Island, 30-foot waves were hurled on the beach and many people kept all-night vigils as their homes were threatened by the surf.

50 Small Boats Wrecked

Weeks of half a hundred motorboats and small yachts were reported. Larger pleasure boats were dragged from their moorings.

Through it all, however, many suburban communities that faced a water famine rejoiced because the rain was filling their reservoirs.

fashion are the chief causes for a vast amount of ill health and nerve tension throughout our whole life. The baby begins wrong because its parents neglect to exercise the help and needed direction in the first steps. Oftentimes a little attention to standing and walking will prevent "heel pounding," or the "shuffling" which denotes careless development in the child's foot muscles.

A large part of foot trouble comes from daily neglecting the foot bath. Through lack of daily care in bathing the feet and providing clean, dry stockings every day your feet are subjected to many evils. The skin between the toes becomes "sick" and tender, causing many later foot troubles, such as peeling, cracking and offensive odors.

A careless position in standing at your work by which you favor one foot or the muscles of your legs, often causes a peculiar habit in walking by which the feet become flexed, causing soreness and swelling. This condition is not remedied any make it almost impossible for you to stand properly or continue at your work regularly. Give your feet plenty of rest. If you are inactive be sure that your feet receive the needed amount of exercise to insure proper blood supply. Properly fitted shoes are needed if your mind is to function normally on the affairs of business or pleasure.

"WAR SUICIDE FOR ALL 'AND BROTHERS'"

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 24.—"War is suicide, for all mankind are brothers," said Rev. Frank D. Adams, D.D., Elgin, Ill., before the conference of Universalist ministers here yesterday.

"Lloyd George, the world's shrewdest statesman and politician," said Dr. Adams, "asks us to choose between the League of Nations and the destruction of civilization as the only possible road to a warless world."

"The premier of Japan, though not a Christian, says that the world's future is in the hands of religious leaders, all else having failed. Woodrow Wilson declares that our civilization can endure materially, only by being redeemed spiritually."

"Count Kessler of Berlin, statesman, diplomat and army officer, declared at Willemstad last summer that great armaments never gave a nation a sense of security. Supreme Court Justice John H. Clark resigned to preach the gospel of the abolition of war. Former Cabinet Officer George W. Wickersham is working for the League of Nations."

"I am not at all proud that the regent of the University of Michigan, my home state, refused Wickersham their auditorium, claiming that the league was a political issue."

"The most tragic mistake of our generation was in permitting the League of Nations to become a partisan issue."

"Some heroic group must send back an answering cry to these prophets in the wilderness. Can that group be the Universalist church?"

"Though a small denomination, our influence limited to the United States, no nation on earth is in greater need of training in the spirit of internationalism, which means world brotherhood."

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts if Your Back Aches or Bladder Troubles You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and lazy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

on route to the White Mountains. The party was gotten up in a hurry and despite this fact everyone was ready on time and off we went. Up hill and down dale! Although the morning was cold and the sky slightly overcast we did not seem to mind it a bit as we sailed along in my friend's new Cadillac Type V-63 Touring Car. And sailing is right, for the beautiful car seemed to be on wings, just gliding along. Soon the sun came out and oh while a beautiful clear day! One could not wish for a more beautiful sight than the mountain sides in their foliage of gay fall colorings. It was immense! A very noticeable

From a Village of Good Cooks

Corn Products Refining Co.
New York

Gentlemen:

I AM the happy mother of five children, whose health is almost perfect, due mostly I believe to a plain nourishing diet.

The village in which we live is noted for its good cooks, many of whom use Mazola.

I do all my own cooking and use Mazola, in many ways, preferring it to anything else, in any kind of salad dressing.

WE have a small garden in which we grow some fine lettuce in summer, making it possible to have many delicious salads, the dressing always being made with Mazola.

I make a large amount of mayonnaise, boiled dressing, and French dressing, all containing pure ingredients of which Mazola forms the basis; my family being very fond of mayonnaise. I make rather large amounts at a time, which keeps perfectly in a cool place.

We find it economical and delicious, and have the added satisfaction of knowing it is pure and a product of our ever delicious corn.

Very truly yours,

thing all along the route was the absence of tourists. They were few and far between. Wonderful time was made from North Woodstock, past the Flume, up through Franconia Notch to Bethel. Touring conditions were ideal and although the roads in places were slightly "wash-boarded," they were solid, nevertheless, and without dust. The steepest hill and grade were literally "levelled out" and my friend did not have to shift gears on any of these hills, going right over them on high. One thing very noticeable as we journeyed over to Fabyans was the absence of snow on Mount Washington. Many times have I looked up to catch a glimpse of the Tip Top house on the Mount but never have I seen this famous house stand out so prominently as on Monday. It even seemed larger than usual, so clear was the atmosphere. One of the most restful sights of the entire trip was coming down through Crawford Notch and we just had to stop until one of our members alighted to take a few pictures. Arriving at North Conway at 12:48, to be exact, we had journeyed slightly over 200 miles since we embarked from Lowell early that morning. The engine had carried us over these most difficult mountain roads with perfect ease, and the four-wheel brakes had proved their worth on many occasions. Three Mile Hill, the base of all White Mountain tourists, we rolled along down without once using the emergency brake. At North Conway, while filling the gas tank, my friend told us that we had averaged about 14 miles to the gallon, a remarkable showing in mountain climbing. After enjoying a most excellent dinner at North Conway we started homeward, and after making a short side trip to Mount Surprise, just outside of North Conway, we were on our way. From Mount Surprise, by the way, one gets a most excellent view of the surrounding valley in which North Conway lies. Our return trip brought us down through Rochester, Exeter, Amosbury, Haverhill, and Shawshin to Lowell, where we arrived at 5:55 p. m. all just as fresh as though we had gone but a few miles, when as a matter of fact the total mileage for the trip was 341 miles.

CORNWALLIS DAY
AT SPALDING HOUSE

Rev. C. E. Fisher, D.D., spoke before the Molly Varnum Chapter, D.A.R., yesterday at the Spalding house as a part of their Cornwallis day program. His subject was the obligation of churches to preach the living of American ideals instead of merely repeating creeds. He spoke of the fact that while the country has many laws on any and all subjects, there is a growing disrespect on the part of the people, for these laws. A report from the state conference was read by Mrs. Elmer Shattuck, showing the progress being made by the chapters. The hospitality committee, Mrs. Charles E. Howe, chairman, served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

For some time there has been talk of discontinuing the line altogether during the winter months, but it is now believed that 12 buses are used in place of electric cars they will be operated all year. While nothing definite has yet been done, it is believed that a change from electric cars to buses will be made by the first of next year.

One of the last public appearances in England of Henry Sullivan, Lowell man who conquered the English Channel, was at the Cheble Heath Swimming club at the Stockport Baths, Cheshire, of his appearance, there was quite the following, and the wife of John De Looch of Oct. 8, just at hand.

"The lady gained in attractiveness by reason of the visit of Henry F. Sullivan, famous swimmer," was an interesting description and demonstration of his swim. Mr. Sullivan, who is 71 years of age, is fast in the water, and the fact that he is 71 pounds, is now the world's endurance champion, the world's breast stroke champion, the owner of the Alexander's record, and the holder of the American amateur swimming title and cup which he has successfully defended since 1913.

Mr. Sullivan, who is now 71 years of age, is fast in the water, and the fact that he is 71 pounds, is now the world's endurance champion, the world's breast stroke champion, the owner of the Alexander's record, and the holder of the American amateur swimming title and cup which he has successfully defended since 1913.

For some time the time came for him to make his appearance. The mayor congratulated the club on the great success of the evening and Mr. Sullivan, who had added to the attractiveness of the evening was that they had their distinguished cousin from across the pond with them, but which was (the mayor) and had they and private, for some time that evening of having a conversation with Mr. Sullivan, and had his great swimmer. Mr. Sullivan's prowess was as a swimmer, he was always everything else a very kindly gentleman and like all real heroes, had no swank" (Applause).

"To accomplish his great swim across the channel in the way he did, after having tried for years, and a great trial that he was. He understood Mr. Sullivan went back that night for his own home and he certainly hoped he would carry with him their very hearty congratulations and good wishes for his swim."

He was a gentleman whom we in England could be mutually proud of along with his own countrymen, and he told us when he got back there he would meet with a great reception. We did not mind how many times our American countrymen had met him, and he had been so long as they carried with them the same gentlemanliness and sportsmanship in their bearing as Mr. Sullivan. Mr. Sullivan, who was a sportsman, and others of a similar character, would be flunk that would bind the countries closer together." (Cheers).

"Mr Sullivan thanked the mayor and those present for their very kind greeting, and went on to give a demonstration of his experience in swimming the channel."

He would be mutually proud of along with his own countrymen, and he felt when he got back there he would meet with a great reception. We did not mind, however, as his American countrymen could not in matters of sport so long as they carried with them the same gentlemanliness and sportsmanship in their acquiring of sports, and hoped that Mr. Sullivan, who is one of a similar character, would be links that would bind the countries closer together." LOWELL PRIESTS AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Catholic clergy of Lowell will be represented at the annual conference of the priests of the Boston diocese in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, Boston, this morning. The event was purely an ecclesiastical affair at which Cardinal O'Connell addressed the clergy on church matters. This morning's gathering was attended by about 400 curates of the diocese, representing more than 225 parishes.

A similar conference was held yesterday with the pastors of the diocese in attendance.

ENJOYED CLAM SUPPER AND LECTURE

The Downtown Men's club met in the vestry of First Congregational church last night for a clam supper and illustrated lecture on the natural scenic beauties of California, given by Rev. Percy B. Thomas, pastor of the church.

The meeting was presided over by Otto W. Butler, Howard D. Smith, president of the Grace Universalist Men's club, spoke on desirability of a United Men's club here.

The first day of soliciting by members of the Y.W.C.A. fund drive teams netted $803 for the budget fund, according to reports made at the supper served in Kitson hall last evening. The rain of the day failed to dampen the ardor of the workers who were all determined to exceed that mark in today's subscriptions. Mrs. S. H. Thompson presided at the supper and Rev. Arthur C. McClintock was the principal speaker. The team headed by Mrs. Joseph Barber, was high for the day.

LOTS OF PEP AND SNAP IN "OH, OH, CINDY"

The tickets for "Oh, Oh, Cindy," the musical comedy to be presented by the Girls City club, were put on sale at the box office of the Academy of Music this morning and judging from indications two capacity houses will greet the young players on Thursday and Friday evenings respectively. "Oh, Oh, Cindy" is just brimming over with "pep" and "snap" with comedy aplenty. A pretty little plot runs through the entire play and many tuneful songs, together with excellent specialty dancing numbers are interwoven. An

DOCKERS' STRIKE IN IRELAND NEAR END

DUBLIN, Oct. 24.—The prolonged strike of the dockers and transport workers, which has caused a stagnation of trade and brought suffering to thousands of people, is coming to an end.

The Cork dockers, idle for three months, agreed yesterday to resume work forthwith on the terms suggested by the government, namely a wage reduction of one shilling a day and the establishment of a commission to investigate the cost of living.

The executive committee of the Transport Workers' union, meeting in Dublin last evening, decided to order all locals to arrange for the resumption of work as soon as possible.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

MERRIMACK SQUARE

Final performances will be given this evening at the Merrimack Square theatre on "The Cheat" starring Pola Negri. Next on one of the most dramatic productions in which she has ever appeared. She is supported by Jack Holt and Charles de Roche, the latter a celebrated French actor. There will be a complete change of program tomorrow.

Features for Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be "The Printer's Devil" starring Wesley Barry in a most novel and entertaining production, and Dustin Farnum in "The Man Who Won," a typical Farnum story with plenty of action and virile drama.

The old saying, "boys will be boys," is proved true by Wesley Barry in "The Printer's Devil."

A False Standard of Culture has gained ground in this country which looks upon the hearing and rearing of children as something coarse and vulgar and to be avoided, but the advent of Engeline means much for the motherhood of the race. Happy is the wife who, though weak and ill, depends upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore her to health, and when headaches and backaches are a thing of the past, her sons and her daughters rise up and call her blessed.

Health Is Vital!

Read What This Mother Says:

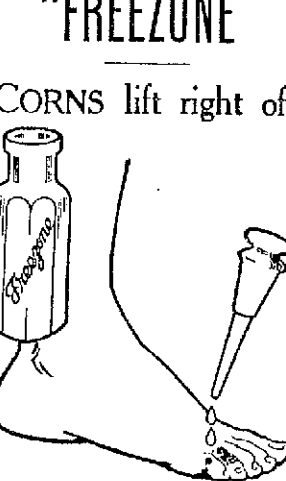

Albany, N. Y. "I have been wonderfully helped by taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During pregnancy my health was very bad. I became so weak and run-down that I could not get around to do anything—just had to lie around all the time. I decided to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and by the time I had taken about one bottle I was able to be around and do my work. I got along fine after that, never having any more trouble. I had practically no suffering and my child was very healthy. Always since that experience, whenever I feel the least bit run-down or in need of a tonic I take a bottle of Favorite Prescription and it makes me feel fine."

THE GREAT OUTDOORS WITH PLenty OF THRILLING ACTION, TOUCHED UP BY AN ABUNDANCE OF COLORFUL ROMANCE.

The theme deals with Brick, who is a youth thrown upon his own resources and who, in order to earn a living, works hard to fill the manifold duties of his job.

When his employer decides to close shop, he walks to the outskirts of the town wondering how he will get along in the future. Here he meets Sidney, a cheerful, young man who had been held up and robbed near the town. Brick takes him to a boarding house and defends him. Later introducing him to Vivian Gates, the pretty daughter of the local banker.

In order to stay in the town permanently, Sidney purchases the Gazette and tempests Brick in his position.

The picture is brought to a happy conclusion by Brick, who, by an ingenious scheme, brings the real robbers to justice, clears Sidney of suspicion and is instrumental in bringing together Sidney and Vivian and is himself admitted to the town.

"The Man Who Won" with Dustin Farnum the second feature, will prove a decided treat to all lovers of this virile actor's work. It's a story of

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and liver troubles.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little, sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a dark brown, rough, bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them. 15c and 50c.—Adv.

HARRY HOSMER BROWN

Death in Boston of Textile Goods Agent Handling Lowell Output

Lowell textile corporation executives learned with sorrow this morning of the death of Harry Hosmer Brown of Boston, widely known in New England textile production circles and for 25 years connected with the great cotton goods selling house of Catlin & Co., Boston and New York, which represents both the Hamilton and the Appleton corporations in the distribution of Lowell-made cotton goods.

Agent Brown, of the Appleton mills on Jackson street, learned of Mr. Brown's death shortly before 10 o'clock. Although not a close business associate of the textile commission man, he was acquainted with his long and notable record in handling much of the wholesale output of the Appleton and Hamilton mills in this city, and regarded the latter agent's continuous 25-year sales record as one rarely equaled.

Harry Hosmer Brown was born in Salem, Mass., 35 years old when death came at his home, 24 Parkman street, Brookline, Monday. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at Blake Memorial chapel, Greenlawn cemetery, Salem.

During his quarter-century career as active Boston commission man for New England-made cottons and other popular lines of goods manufactured in this section of the country, and as one of the working men's representatives in the Lowell Textile Association, Mr. Brown was engaged in general brokerage business, including the time connection with Wellington, Sears and Co., Boston, and afterward organizing his personally-conducted cotton brokerage firm known as Harry H. Brown and Co.

COKE QUESTION WILL BOB UP TOMORROW

The board of public service will be up to its ears in coke tomorrow afternoon, when it is expected the water works coke disposal question will come up again for discussion. The board may rescind a previous vote whereby the water department superintendent was authorized to dispose of the fuel to employees of the department for 35 cents per ton.

Since Mr. F. Cannon filed protest last week against this method of disposal, the question has been hanging in the air and the natural place for a settlement is before the public service board.

Traffic Held Up By Bad Washout

NORTH ADAMS, Oct. 24.—Traffic on the North Adams-Pittsfield branch of the Boston & Albany railroad was held up for several hours this morning by a bad washout at Zylonite. The first train leaving this city for Pittsfield at 5.55 a. m., succeeded in getting through, although the water was over the tracks to a height of several feet. The washout occurred shortly afterwards, and the train due to leave here at 7 a. m. was delayed until the repairs on the road bed were completed at 11 a. m.

"Subsy" Sullivan Convicted in Liquor Case

SALEM, Oct. 24.—Michael J. Sullivan, known in sporting circles as "Subsy," was convicted at the district court today of keeping liquor with intent to sell. He was sentenced to three months in the house of correction and fined $200. He appealed. His house on Orange street was raided Oct. 6 and 48 bottles of champagne, 48 bottles of brandy and five gallons of alcohol which he testified he had "for social purposes" were seized.

ures, and after asking the jury if it was their intention to find for the plaintiff, Gray, for the full amount with interest, and receiving an affirmative reply, the court informed the jury that probably because of an error in compiling the interest, the jury's figures were in excess of the actual amount by about $100. The jury agreed to a correction, and the corrected verdict was recorded.

Intrinsic Points of Law

Some intrinsic points of law are involved in the next two cases, which went to trial, both being actions of tort growing out of an automobile accident. In one case Fannie R. Simpson seeks to recover against Charles T. Douglas and Bartholomew T. Hayes, doing business as Douglas & Hayes, as a result of injuries sustained when a sedan in which she was riding, and a Ford truck owned by the defendants, collided on the Lawrence-Lowell boulevard.

The accident happened on the afternoon of Dec. 10, 1921, and in the car with Mrs. Simpson were her husband, and her son, Roger Simpson, who was driving. As the Simpson machine attempted to pass the truck, it is claimed the driver of the truck turned the truck so that it crashed into the rear wheel of the sedan.

The second suit was brought by John A. Simpson vs. same, in which Mr. Simpson seeks damages for loss of his wife's services. The ad damnum in each case is $5000 and $3000 respectively.

In their declarations the plaintiffs contend that the defendants unlawfully permitted the truck to be operated by a person who had no legal right to do so, in violation of chapter 90 of the general laws, and by a person who was incompetent and unfit. The plaintiffs further contend that the defendants unlawfully permitted the truck to be driven without the truck being equipped with proper lights, and while so driven that it was a nuisance on the public highway.

Attorney Howard, of Quin, Howard and Rogers, is counsel for the plaintiffs and Kerwin and Kelly for the defense.

BOY WAS RUN OVER BY AUTOMOBILE

Ten-year-old Joseph Griffin, of 35 Elm street was run over at 12.25 o'clock this morning by an automobile operated by John J. Jolley of 19 Lundberg street. He was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital by Jolley where it was found that he was suffering from a fractured collar bone.

52 MILE GALE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 24.—The storm which swept this section of the New Jersey coast reached a velocity of 52 miles an hour. National guardsmen were held in readiness for rescue work.

Rainfall Below Normal Here

twice as much as had fallen during the first 22 days of the month. In fact, there was rain only on three days prior to Tuesday, the 23rd, when the precipitation was 0.503, and on the 19th, when it was 0.513 and on the 20th, when it was 0.167.

Reports received at the Locks and Canals from Manchester, N. H., today told of a rainfall of 1.83 inches from 8 a. m. on Tuesday to 8 o'clock this morning, which shows that the storm is not local and extends up the river valley for a considerable distance. This fact will mean a bigger river in Lowell within a very few hours.

Traffic Jam in Rain

The storm in Lowell seemed to reach its peak last night although it rained steadily most all day. Whipped and swept along by a strong northeast wind, the rain came down in torrents during the early evening and made almost unbearable traffic conditions downtown. As it happened several thousand people came into the heart of the city for the Denishawva entertainment and the traffic jam in East Merrimack street and in the square continued for nearly an hour.

A large elm tree crashed to the ground at the corner of East Merrimack and Alder streets, falling directly across the car tracks and taking with it wires of public utilities corporations. It was two hours before it could be cleared.

Street Railway Hard Hit

The street railway company was especially hard hit by the storm. Shortly after 7 o'clock a lakeview car was derailed by sand that had been washed over the tracks by the rain and was off the track until 11 o'clock when it was towed back to Mount Pleasant road and beyond.

A trolley was broke on Mammoth road at 1.30 o'clock and was not repaired until 3.30. Passengers on the Pavlovskville cars transferred from one car to another beyond the break until it was repaired.

A truck owned by the Prior Transportation company of Boston became disabled on the Reading line Tuesday night at 11 o'clock last night and the driver put it on the street railway company's tracks while he went to get assistance.

Supt. Savers was notified of this and he, with several other officials of the company and the wrecking crew went out there and worked until 3 o'clock this morning, when they got the truck sufficiently off the track to allow cars to pass. Passenger traffic was not materially interrupted as a shuttle car was operated from the square to where the truck was blocked, and transferred passengers there for points beyond.

William Mayo Trapped

BY LOCAL POLICE

Clever slouching on the part of the police was responsible for the arrest yesterday morning of William Mayo, wanted in connection with a statutory offense alleged to have been committed in the Highlands last Monday. When the offense was brought to the attention of the authorities, Motorcycle Officer Andrew Hunter secured the neighborhood and saw the defendant making a getaway through a field near Princeton street. Later Lieut. Martin Maher and Agent Richardson of the Humane society were notified of the case and set out to apprehend the responsible party. Their first act was to get in touch with a Middlesex street employment agency, thinking that the suspect would seek work out of town. Their suspicions were well founded for it was soon learned that application had been made for such work.

A watch was then set at the railroad station with Lieut. Maher, Sgt. McCleoughy and Officer William Histon on guard. Mayo eventually put in an appearance and was immediately arrested.

In district court this morning he was found guilty of the offense and sentenced to six months in the house of correction. On appeal, he was ordered to furnish bonds of $500 for appearance in superior court on the first Monday in November.

Never Saw Mrs. Stokes

IN BUNCETON, MO.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Clarence McCormick, friend of Edgar Wallace, principal correspondent named by W. E. D. Stokes in his suit for divorce from Helen Elwood Stokes, today denied testimony that he had been in Bunceton, Mo., in 1904, in company with Wallace and Mrs. Stokes, as had been asserted by witnesses for the husband.

McCormick, who had seen Mrs. Stokes for the first time in his life when he entered the court room today, He asserted he was in Europe in 1904. He denied other testimony of Stokes' witnesses that he had been in Bunceton, Mo., and at the Bethel, Conn., home of W. L. Pepperman, a friend of Wallace's.

Injured Man Found

IN DUTTON STREET

Earl Smith of Nashua, N. H., was found lying on Dutton street in an unconscious condition shortly after 10 o'clock last night, by Dr. R. A. Donohoe. Dr. Donohoe picked the man up and took him to the Lowell Corporation hospital, where he was taken to the hospital. He had several stitches to close cuts on his face and it was also found that he was severely bruised about the head and back.

From the position in which the man was found, it is believed that he was struck by an automobile. Sgt. Keenan is investigating the affair and is unable to find any witnesses of the accident and it was not for several hours before anyone was found who could identify Smith. It was reported that Smith's injuries were not serious.

Fight for Independence

MANILA, Oct. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—Leading legislators today declared war to a finish to obtain independence for the Philippines and the removal of Governor General Leonard Wood and his replacement by a Filipino.

Explosion in North Attleboro Gas Plant

ATTLEBORO FALLS, Oct. 24.—An explosion in the purifying room of the North Attleboro Gaslight Co., today blew John Wade, an employee, into the yard and tore off the roof of the small brick building, which sailed to the top of a three-story factory nearby. Wade was burned and bruised but not seriously hurt. Thomas Cassidy, another employee was badly cut by flying glass. Windows in buildings in the vicinity were shattered and the gas service was interrupted for two hours. Wade said the explosion came just after he had discovered a leak and had turned on an electric light.

Street Car Service is Roundly Criticized

The street railway company is being criticized today for the poor way in which it handled the crowds which attended the Boston Auditorium last night. The Auditorium last night especially for the reason that there were no cars at the Auditorium to accommodate the crowd when the entertainment was brought to a close. In the past, critics say, the company has had ten or twelve cars drawn up along East Merrimack street, but last night in a heavy down-pour there were none.

Supt. Thomas J. Savers of the street railway company replied to this criticism today by saying that automobile traffic on East Merrimack street was so dense and so poorly handled that it was impossible to run cars from that point to the square or anywhere else.

"In fact," Supt. Savers said, "unless something is done to relieve traffic in East Merrimack street when there is an affair at the Auditorium, we might just as well stop running cars on that street."

As an example of what the street railway company had to contend with last night, Supt. Savers stated that a special car from Rogers Hall school required 15 minutes to come from the corner of High and East Merrimack streets to the Auditorium. The Oakland-broadway car due in the square at 7.07 did not get into the square until 7.31. Although it was on time at East Merrimack and High streets, the Anderson-Moody street line was also affected in a like manner and extra cars had to be put on those lines to keep them anywhere near schedule.

The extra cars that ordinarily would have met the crowds at the Auditorium were held in the square and were loaded there and Supt. Savers said that the first car started loading at 11.06 o'clock and that at 11.15 there were very few people standing in the square waiting for cars.

Sensational Disclosures in Veterans' Bureau

using the second $5000 to pay his expenses of a trip he took with Mr. Forbes, to the Pacific coast. He asserted that he paid all of Mr. Forbes' expenses except railroad fares, which was paid by the government.

The series of "parties" described by the witness, took place, he said, from February, 1922, to June, 1922, and during this time he continued, Mr. Forbes had conferences with Mr. Black and Mr. Thompson concerning contracts and proposed that their firm would be made care of in the letting of contracts over which he claimed he had absolute authority.

Officials of the company also were given a confidential list of the sites where it was proposed to erect hospitals. Mortimer further testified and after an inspection they decided they would want to build the proposed plant at Northampton, Mass., and so informed Mr. Forbes. The director then, according to the witness, supplied them with plans and specifications in advance of the general distribution of this information to contractors. Mortimer said this naturally gave his firm a tremendous advantage.

Before the party concluded to visit Chicago, Mortimer testified, the Northampton contract again was discussed and Mr. Thompson was assured again by Forbes that the late Charles E. Cramer, general counsel for the Veterans' bureau, had the matter in hand.

Mr. Thompson was told by Forbes to go back to Washington and keep in touch with Mr. Cramer, the witness went on, and was assured that if another bid was submitted lower than that of the Pontiac Construction Co. of Detroit, Mich., a Thompson-Black subsidiary, time would be made the essence of the contract so as to assure its award to the Pontiac Co.

Trip Cost $5400

The cost of the Pacific coast trip made by Forbes for the purpose of inspecting hospital sites, was estimated by Mortimer at $5400. He said there were a number of "parties" on the coast, and that "the drinking" started within an hour after the Forbes party reached the Fairmont hotel at San Francisco. Forbes, he testified, had a couple of dozen bottles of wine sent up to the hotel from Liverpool, but little of the wine was touched there, and we took it in an automobile to Stockton." He added that Scotch was plentiful, and this was the drink largely consumed.

At Stockton, he continued, a party was arranged for "Tough and Ready Island," and it finally wound up at the home of a woman friend of Mr. Forbes at Stockton, whose name was withheld from the record. The witness said the home referred to had a bar in it "as long as this room."

John F. O'Ryan, general counsel for the committee, in response to inquiries from members, told the committee he was presenting this phase of the matter because it showed that high officials of the bureau, at a time when the need for hospital facilities for caring for former service men was most pressing were spending much of their time "partying."

General O'Ryan then introduced a copy of a letter which he said Mr. Forbes had written to his woman friend in Stockton under date of July 26, 1922, saying:

"From Stockton to Washington, some 3000 miles interest, but I have to tell you that I was to record in this letter the visualization of that never to be forgotten room in your home, the name of which is a word obsolete if not obsolete. I think I remember not only the details of construction and the beauty of the whole effect, but the heat of Washington comes up before me as a miracle of the innumerable things that brought me eyes and excited the palate of the thirty. If I could but materialize these things, I assure you that Washington, in its bravest of torrid days, would offer me no apprehension of discomfort."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Ambassador Harvey's speech last night in Congress was described in administration circles today as clearly stating once more the position of the Washington government with reference to the reparations tangle.

ALBERT S. HOWARD

LIONS' CLUB SPEAKER

The speaker at the regular neontime luncheon of the Lions' club of Lowell in Cole's Inn today was Albert S. Howard, of the firm of Quin, Howard & Rogers, lawyers, Mr. Howard's description of the trip recently taken by auto through Glacier and Yellowstone National parks.

He was introduced by President C. E. Bartlett, and spoke first of the beauties of Glacier park, which retains much of its natural and primitive aspect, and in regard to animals this is the only one of the government reservations with any mountain goats in its limits, as well as practically all other varieties of North American animals. The coloring in the rock formations, he described as being composed of beautiful yellow, gray, red, and green shale which had been thrown up some time in the past by volcanic action, which had completely reversed the strata of the earth's crust, and that which should be at the bottom in the formation known as the Lewis Overthrust fault. At present travel accommodations are rather crude and it is necessary to go through the park on horseback if one wishes to cover all the 15,000 square miles comprising the territory with the attendant 250 lakes and 60 glaciers.

Some description holds true except that here the animals are more domesticated and at places tourists may stand nearby and watch the beasts as they come to find a meal. The most striking of the natural wonders are the geysers and hot springs.

Mr. Howard also described the passes over the Rocky mountains in the California coast which are at present open only part of the year on account of the early snows visiting them at the elevations of over 13,000 feet above sea level. This condition will soon be eliminated by the Moffat tunnel making auto travel from Denver to San Francisco possible with any amount of ease. A tour composed of H. B. Leggett, Dr. G. Forrest Martin, A. K. Smith and J. P. Ballard sang several rounds of planned songs, and Fred Harvey gave a report for the committee which concerned with other organizations at the chamber of commerce rooms recently on the advisability of starting a safety week campaign in Lowell. For next week the service will be secured by Elmore I. MacPhail.

JOSEPH MICHAUD OVERCOME BY GAS

Joseph Michaud of 75 South street was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital in the ambulance at 5 o'clock last night suffering from gas asphyxiation. He was unconscious when taken from his home and this afternoon was reported to be still unconscious.

Sergeant McMahon investigated the matter for the police and he reports the following: Mrs. Michaud returned to her home at about 5 o'clock and found her husband lying on the bed, unconscious, with the gas cock turned partly on and the door to his room partly open. Which undoubtedly saved his life. She notified Dr. Sweetser, who ordered the man taken to the hospital. Dr. Sweetser examined the gas cock and found it to be very loose so loose in fact that he believed the asphyxiation to be accidental.

SALVATION ARMY SERVICES POPULAR

It is a long time since the services held by the local Salvation Army proved such an attraction as the present ones which are being conducted by Staff-Captain John Waldron, the army's revivalist. During the first three days 25 persons were at the altar confessing their wrong and resolving to lead better lives in the future. Last night a reinforcement came over from Nashua, N. H. There is always some added attraction beside the address, and a cardinal invitation is extended to all. The service commences at 8 o'clock.
